

Rockfish News

by Mrs. A.A. McInnis

No news from Tabernacle Church except attendance was very good for the morning worship service.

The revival at Pittman Grove Church last week was very successful with the Rev. George McKeithan, pastor of Second Baptist Church, Raeford, preaching. There were many rededications, and one new member was added to the church.

The M.Y.F. met at Parker Church from 3 to 5 p.m. last Sunday.

The U.M.W. of Parker Church had a cake sale at Wayside Community House last Saturday night that turned out very well.

Mrs. Margaret Johnston of Winston-Salem spent from Monday to Thursday last week with Mr. and Mrs. Herman Koonce, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Koonce, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Koonce. She came especially to see her sister, Mrs. Furman Martin who is at Open Arms Rest Home in Raeford.

Mrs. Floyd Monroe, Mrs. Herman Koonce, Mrs. Glenn Wood and Mrs. Ruria Warner attended the dedication of the Headquarters Building of the North Carolina Division United Daughters of the Confederacy in Raleigh Saturday May 14.

Mrs. Minor McGougan of St. Pauls visited her father Will Monroe Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Jane Frazier and Mrs. Ruel Johnson and the Youth Group of Tabernacle Church went to Morrow Mountain last Sunday. As well as enjoying the scenery along the way and seeing the mountain, they had scripture reading and prayer making it a day of physical refreshment and also spiritual inspiration.

Mrs. Johnny Allen and Teresa, Mrs. Henry Fowler and Kathy spent a few days last week in Richmond, Virginia visiting their brother Allen Gibson.

Mrs. Beulah Norton of Fayetteville visited her sister, Mrs. R.H. Gibson Monday.

Mrs. Harvey Thornton and children of Fayetteville, visited Mrs. R.H. Gibson Sunday p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Durham of Cullowhee were supper guests of Mrs. Henry Fowler and Kathy Sunday night.

Mrs. Bill Clipson of Annapolis, Md. is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.A. Ray and brother Thomas Ray this week.

Mrs. Thelma Harmons sister, Mrs. R.E. Koonce of Jacksonville, N.C. spent the past weekend with Mrs. Harmon and Mrs. Anna M. Gillis.

Arnold Monroe of Fayetteville came by Sunday a.m. and took his father Will Monroe to their home to have dinner with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Parsons and Mrs. Oscar Hobby of Fayetteville were guests of their aunt, Miss Sarah Patterson Sunday night.

Mrs. Mary McInnis spent Tuesday with her sisters, Miss Maggie Smith and Mrs. J.D. McInnis of Wagram while Thomas McInnis and the Rev. Russell Fleming, pastor of Galatia attended Presbytery at Laurinburg. There are only 2 of the 7 Smith sisters left at the old home place now.

Mrs. N.J. Ritter was getting along very well Monday when I talked to her. And she said her son-in-law Henry Epps was doing better than usual. He has had so much back trouble and been to the doctor so often, his doctor told him in a joking manner recently, "Get out of here before you get sick again." But of course everyone knows he would not get sick if he could help it, neither would anyone else.

Mrs. A.W. Wood accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Wood and daughter Beth and Mrs. R.V. Page of Wilmington to Chapel Hill last Sunday to see Allen Wood graduate with honors from Law School. They were joined there by David Wood of Burlington and Mark Wood. Congratulations and best wishes to the young lawyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Livingston of Raeford were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Smith McInnis and Mrs. Jim Maxwell last Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C.M. Chason had their son Earl Chason and Chuck and Jennifer as their dinner guests last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Conn of Parkton visited Mr. and Mrs. Chason and Larry last Saturday.

The Wayside and Rockfish communities extend sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Plummer and Thomas McFadyen in the death of their brother John McFadyen who recently passed away in Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. Ethel D. Gibson who has not been right well for some time reports that she is much better on this Monday a.m.

Her son M.S. Gibson spent from Friday to Sunday at Carolina Beach.

Mrs. Evelyn Brock of Red Springs and her son Jimmy Brock visited Mrs. Nelia Brock for a while last Saturday afternoon. He was from Morganton.

My one and only son-in-law Earl J. Hare called to my attention to the fact that I had too many McInnis names in the Rockfish News one week. It was true I don't like to have it that way but it was Monday after Mother's Day and I guess the family was stirring around more than usual that Sunday. I tried to get some other people's Mother's Day news but most of them I couldn't get "over the party line". So please excuse me. Maybe it won't happen again or maybe it will.

Homer Quick of Montrose came by Raeford and took Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Caddell to Tabernacle Church Sunday a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Hare of Charlotte spent last Wednesday night with her mother and brother of Rockfish. They had brought his mother, Mrs. John A. Webb to Open Arms Rest Home in Raeford. They visited Mrs. Webb and Mrs. Furman there on Thursday and found them satisfied.

Mrs. Mary Shewbridge of Margate, Fla., and Mrs. Alma Lovette of Wayside and Mrs. Floyd Monroe were guests of Mrs. Mary McInnis one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Bostic's daughter who was hospitalized on account of a snake bite and her baby that was born since that time are both doing fine. The baby was still in the hospital at last account.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith McInnis and Mr. and Mrs. W.L. Lancaster have had Mr. and Mrs. David Lancaster's children with them the past week, while their parents were on a trip somewhere. They came for the children Monday.

COMMENT

The saying that "No news is good news" is no good when what you want is news.

WHOOOPS -- Red faced firemen have put up a smoke screen about an incident which happened over the weekend at the "Hill Crest Fire Department". Some hasty Hillcrest firemen apparently tried to exit without opening the door. However, the man can't be called a "country bumpkin" as he only duplicated a mistake made a few years ago by a city fireman. [Photo by Marty Vega]

Rape Suspect Arrested

A forty five year-old county man has been jailed on charges of rape, kidnaping and assault with a deadly weapon after a Sunday spree in which one woman was shot.

Being held in the Hoke County jail without privilege of bond is James Edward Hunt, no address listed.

Hunt has been charged with the rape of Christine Oxendine, 22, of Rt. 1, Red Springs, who reported the alleged attack Sunday to deputies here.

Hunt's estranged wife, Jessie Locklear Hunt, was hospitalized at Scotland Memorial Hospital after being wounded by gunfire in Robeson County, detective Alex Norton said.

Norton said Hunt kidnaped the two women at gunpoint from Mrs. Hunt's home in the South Hoke area Sunday morning. Miss Oxendine had been living at the home. The detective said that Hunt drove them into Robeson County where Mrs. Hunt was shot. Miss Oxendine was driven back to the South Hoke home where the alleged sexual assault occurred.

Norton said Robeson County authorities would file additional charges against Hunt in connection with the shooting.

Hunt was arrested at his home about 6:15 p.m. Sunday, Norton said. A May 19 appearance has been set.

Lindbergh's Spirit of St. Louis, displayed at the National Air and Space Museum in Washington, D.C., has its manufacturer's trademark, a winged R, painted on only one side of its rudder. The other side isn't the original fabric. It was put on in Paris after souvenir hunters tore off one rudder panel when Lindbergh landed after his 1927 transatlantic flight, the National Geographic Society says.
