John D. McNeill

John Duncan McNeill, 66, native John Duncan McNeill, 66, native and lifelong resident of this com-munity, was found dead in his bed early Friday at the J.F. Chisholm home south of Raeford where he lived alone. He had been in declining health for several years. His mother a Chisholm, "John Dunc" was descended from families who have lived in this area for many generations. As a youth for many generations. As a youth and young man, he was one of the outstanding athletic heroes of his generation in this section, playing quarterback on a state cham-pionship football team for Raeford High School and heine the leading High School, and being the leading pitcher for Raeford High School's baseball team which went to the state finals in 1929. He also played fullback briefly for the University of North Carolina under Coach fullback briefly for the University of North Carolina under Coach Charles "Chuck" Collins, who passed away last month. He managed the hardward de-partment of McLauchlin Company for many years while his cousin J.L. McNeill was running the company, and was widely known for his practical jokes. Graveside service was conducted by the Rey, John Ronn at Raeford by the Rev. John Ropp at Raeford cemetery at 3:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon. He is survived by many cousins, here and elsewhere.

AWARD WINNERS -- The Hoke County Jaycees presented its Jaycee of the Year Award and its Rookie of the Year Award in ceremonies at the annual Installation Banquet on Saturday night. Named as Jaycee of the Year was Ozell Jacobs [right] and Rookie of the Year honors went to Dexter Jones [left].

Mental Health Treatment Offered To Local Residents Through Sandhills Center

Mental health outpatient services are available to Hoke County residents through the Sandhills Mental Health Center, one of several comprehensive mental health centers established through-out the state out the state.

A full range of services is available, including individual therapy for adults and children, marriage counseling, psychiatric evaluation and drug and alcohol counseling. counseling.

After-hours emergency services are provided through the emergency room at Moore Memorial Hospital in Pinehurst. Hospitalization can be arranged in the psychiatric inpatient unit at Moore Memorial or at Dorothea Dix Hospital in Patient Raleigh.

Information and appointments for services are available by calling the Hoke County Health Center (875-3717). All services are confidential. Fees are based on a sliding scale according to income and no one is refused services for financial reasons.

The major work of the mental health center is outpatient treat-ment. This is for the majority of patients who continue to live in the community and are seen for therapy appointments at regular inter-Outpatient services also include evaluation and referral of patients who may need more intensive treatment, and aftercare for patients discharged from hospi-

The Sandhills Mental Health Center also serves Moore, Mont-gomery, Richmond and Anson counties. The Center is supported by county, state and federal funds and is governed by a board of directors composed of representatives of each of the five counties. Phillip Diehl of Raeford is the current chairman of the board of directors. James A. Hunt and Mrs. Neil McPhatter are the other local members on the board.

Mrs. Young said the fair was very educational, fun, informative, and very interesting since the students were able to talk with Health

Careers Club members across the state. Many agreed that the most interesting exhibits were the ones

Well, it may seem hard to believe but there is only one week of school left for the seniors and two weeks for everyone else. This year has really flown by for all of us. The year is beginning to wind down as many clubs are having their last meetings and some are having parties. Year end activities are keeping everyone busy trying to cram last minute assignments into the two weeks left along with invitations to mail, the athletic banquet, graduation, exams, etc. The Hoke High Band presented its annual Spring Concert this past Thursday, May 19. The band, as always, put on a fine performance. The band highlighted a song, by showing slides of their Florida trip.
