Miss Pratt Is Honored At Luncheon

Miss Betsy Pratt, June bride-elect, was honored at a buffet luncheon Saturday at 1:00 at the home of Mrs. Hugh Lowe. Other hostesses were Miss Maude Poole and Mrs. Isabel Dombkowski. Twelve guests were seated at small tables covered with white linen cloths and centered with arrangements of spring flowers. A pastel color theme was used throughout the house. Miss Pratt was presented a corsage of pink carnations and gifts of linen, silver, and china from the hostesses.

Attending from out of town was Mrs. H.C. McLaughlin of Charlotte.

Pratt - Lowe

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Woodard announce the engagement of Mrs. Woodard's daughter, Betsy Anne Pratt, to William Gary Lowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Lowe of Raeford. Miss Pratt is also the daughter of Myron Pratt of Cronwell, Connecticut. A June eleventh wedding is planned. Miss Pratt was graduated from Hoke County High School, attended UNC at Wilmington, and was graduated from Sandhills Community College School of Nursing in March. She is presently employed with the office of Dr. Ramnik Zota of Raeford. Mr. Lowe was graduated from Hoke County High School and is employed by Hoke Auto Parts Co. of Raeford.

Luncheon Honors Miss Daniels

Miss Judy Daniels, June bride-elect, was honored with a luncheon Saturday at the home of Mrs. Richard Coker. Hostesses were Mrs. Jack Scarborough of Oxford and Mrs. Mary Jo Smith.

The dining room table was centered with an arrangement of spring flowers and small tables, with arrangements of pansies.

The bride was presented a gift of lingerie by the hostesses.

Congressman's Wives Honor First Lady

Mrs. Charles G. Rose, III, wife of 7th District Congressman Charlie Rose, was co-chairman of the annual breakfast held Thursday at the Shoreham - Americana Hotel by the Congressional Club in honor of First Lady Rosalynn Carter.

Every spring since 1912, the Congressional Club has given a breakfast in honor of our nation's First Lady. In attendance this year were over 1,100 wives of senators, congressmen, Supreme Court justices, and cabinet members and wives of former holders of these offices, along with their guests.

Next year, Mrs. Rose will be chairman of the Breakfast Committee, which plans and carries out all arrangements for this important event.

Mrs. Carter and the other distinguished guests were introduced by Mrs. Rose and Mrs. Tennyson Cuyler of Ohio, Chairman of the 1977 Breakfast Committee.

The honored guests included Mrs. Walter Mondale, wife of Vice President, Mrs. Thomas P. O'Neill, Jr., wife of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, Mrs. Warren E. Burger, wife of the Chief Justice, Mrs. Cyrus Vance, wife of the Secretary of State, wives of the Supreme Court Justices, other Cabinet members' wives, the Honorable Juanita Kreps from North Carolina, Secretary of Commerce, the Honorable Patricia Roberts Harris, Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, and Mrs. Hubert H. Humphrey.

Congressional Club officers were also presented. Among the past

Congressional Club Presidents introduced by Mrs. Rose were North Carolinians Mrs. Roy Taylor and Mrs. Richardson Preyer.

Members of the Congressional Club are active in many types of community services and charity work, and the Club donates funds to charities in behalf of the First Lady. Mrs. Carter chose the Mental Health Program of the District and the Washington, D.C. Chapter of Recording for the Blind. She presented checks from the Club to representatives of these two organizations.

Theme of this year's breakfast was "Roses of Rosalynn". The huge chandelier - lit ballroom was garden-like with the Carter green and white campaign colors. Cherokee roses, with state flower of Georgia, were placed throughout the room and perfumed the air.

The honored guests were escorted to the head table by members at the Marine Corps in full dress uniform along a ramp covered in green and lined with topiary trees with Peace roses flown in the day before from Ohio.

The head table was also covered in green with a green and white lattice-work backdrop. Roses formed the centerpieces.

Mrs. Carter was presented a framed needlepoint sampler by the Congressional Club. This unique design depicts the White House encircled with Cherokee roses in which the first names of the Carter family are entwined.

Radiant in anula - suede violet - blue dress, Mrs. Carter addressed the group in her soft voice. She said she was glad to be at "her first breakfast".

The Marine Band provided background music. Singer Tony Bennett entertained with such songs as his famous "I Left My Heart in San Francisco", after first saluting Mrs. Carter.
