

Truck Load Overturns

A driver escaped injury Thursday morning when a trailer loaded with one thousand gallons of liquid nitrogen overturned on U.S. 401 nine miles south of the city.

According to Highway Patrol trooper K.W. Weston, the 11:40 a.m. mishap occurred when a wheel came off the trailer being pulled by a pickup. The driver of the truck was identified as Ernest Crowley, 33, of Bennettsville, S.C.

Damage from the fertilizer to the highway right-of-way was estimated at $300.

No charges were filed.

The Patrol reported a car-truck collision May 16 in which no injuries were reported and total property damage was put at $2,100.

According to troopers, an auto being driven by Henry L. Edwards, 19, of Rt. 1, Box 187, Raeford, was heading north on U.S. 401 eight miles north of the city when it crossed the center line on a curve and sideswiped a tractor trailer heading south. The vehicle then ran off the left side of the road. Operator of the truck was identified as Artice H. Perkins, 26, of Rt. 1, Parkton.

Antler Club

The Hoke County High School Booster Club is actively seeking memberships into The Antler Club. This club will be made up of former Hoke High and Raeford High School athletes and lettermen working to promote the athletic program at our alma mater.

Funds raised from The Antler Club membership drive will be used to strengthen the entire Hoke County High School athletic program. Many individuals don't realize that high school athletic programs must be self-sustaining - that is the sports that take in revenue must support all the programs in the school. At Hoke High only basketball and football are revenue sports.

The Booster Club would like to see Hoke County High School the powerhouse of the Southeastern 4-A Conference in all sports. Hoke High has already produced one Olympic star, but it wants others! Conference titles, state championships, and college grants for our fine athletes are the goals.

Please help in this endeavor. The club hopes to complete The Antler Club membership drive for 1977-1978 by mid-August. A complete list of all its members will be in the Bucks' football program.

Cost of membership is $25, which is tax deductible. Make your check payable to: Hoke High Booster Club and mail to Dale Teal, P.O. Box 160, Raeford 28376

County Arts Council Invites Participation

The Hoke County Arts Council, formally organized last month, welcomes new members and any interested citizens are invited to attend meetings.

Established as a non-profit organization governed by a citizens' board, the Hoke Council became one of more than 75 arts councils in North Carolina whose aim is not only the development of community arts programs, but also the total development of art in all forms-visual, literary and performing in the county.

The Hoke County Arts Council plans to sponsor quarterly programs as well as endorse and encourage various arts programs and projects locally, it has been announced.

Membership in the Arts Council is open to the entire community.

Payment of $5 dues entitles a member to all of the rights and privileges of the organization. Members may vote for officers and directors of the board, shall have the opportunity to serve on one of several standing committees, and completely participate in the Council's affairs.

Directors of the Hoke County

Arts Council are Anne Hostetler, Yvonne Snead, Jo Ann Gregory, Gladys Gilchrist, Elizabeth Burgess, Jimmy James, Ashwell Harward, Clyde Jacobs, Philip Diehl, Donna Bernhardt, Jane Davis, Anne Wright and Tom Howell.

Persons interested in membership may contact Mrs. Hostetler, (875-2745), Mrs. Gregory at the high school, or Mrs. Snead
