Tennis Lessons

The Commission will be sponsoring instructional tennis lessons for all abilities. Classes are set to begin June 20 at the Hoke High Courts. There will be three classes each morning Monday-Friday and two classes each Saturday morning. There will also be a 10-15 person limit per class, so registration will be on a first come, first serve basis. Ability levels will be grouped together, thus exact time schedules will depend on the number who register and on their abilities. Interested folks should call the recreation office and register today.

Volleyball Change

A change has been made in the co-ed volleyball schedule. Ladies free play will be Tuesday nights. Ages 15-17 will compete on Wednesday nights. Ages 18 and up will still play on Monday nights. An organizational meeting for all teams will be held Monday, June 13 in the Gibson gymnasium. Rules and regulations will be discussed at that time.

Kindergarten Puts On Show

Kindergarteners from J.W. McLauchlin School entertained parents, teachers and other students with an end of the year program Tuesday morning.

The children, students of Mrs. G.A. Wright, sang, counted to 100, recited rhymes and the alphabet, and danced for the crowd gathered outside in the sun.

Mrs. A.M. McKinnon was narrator of the program.

As part of the finale the girls formed a group to dance the Bunny Hop and circle the Maypole. The boys donned feathers and performed the Indian Dance. The boys also did a march while wearing soldier's hats.

The final act brought the children back together for a Soul Train number.
