Few Cases Make Light Schedule

Only a handful of cases were heard Friday in District Court before Judge Dupree and court was adjourned before noon.

Larry McCain, Shawtown, pleaded not guilty to assault with a deadly weapon but was found guilty. Benjamin Green testified that McCain hit him in the arm with a bumper jack outside the Moonlight Inn in Jones Hill on the evening of May 14. Green said the wound required 16 stitches. McCain testified in his own defense that he used the bumper jack while attempting to break up an altercation.

Sentencing of McCain was delayed until July 8.

In other cases, John G. Balfour Jr., Rt. 1, Lumber Bridge, pleaded not guilty but was found guilty of exceeding a safe speed. He was fined court costs.

Raymond C. Barna, Rt. 1, Box 36, Raeford, pleaded guilty to driving under the influence and received a 90 day term suspended for 12 months. He was fined $150 and costs and ordered not to operate a motor vehicle in North Carolina for one year.

Jim Boahn, Rt. 4, Box 215, Raeford, pleaded not guilty and was found not guilty of assault with a deadly weapon. The prosecuting witness was ordered to pay costs for frivolous and malicious prosecution.

Belton Day, Shawtown, pleaded not guilty and was found not guilty of simple assault. The prosecuting witness was ordered to pay costs for frivolous and malicious prosecution.

The following charges were dismissed by the prosecutor: Robert L. Campbell, P.O. Box 226, Shannon, worthless check; Harold Bullard, Rt. 1, Aberdeen, assault on a female; and Alton Odom, Rt. 1, Raeford, public drunkenness.

Thursday Session

James Lee McNatt, Rt. 1, Box 539, Raeford, pleaded guilty to a charge of non-support and was sentenced to 30 days in jail, suspended, and ordered to pay $50 each week for the benefit of his children. McNatt was also charged court costs.

Schoolmen Attending Conference

School Supt. G. Raz Autry and assistant superintendents J.D. McAllister and Ernest Sutton Sr. and Upchurch Junior High principal Earl Oxendine are attending the State Superintendent's Conference for central office personnel July 6 - 9 at the Great Smokies Hilton in Asheville. Nearly 500 school supervisors from across the state are in attendance.

According to State Superintendent Craig Phillips, the annual conference provides an opportunity for the staff of the Department of Public Instruction to bring administrators up to date on the latest laws and policies affecting public schools, services available to local schools from the State agency, and national and statewide issues and trends in education.

The theme of this year's conference is "North Carolina and Education: 1977-78" and will focus on such topics as "The Future is Now", led by State Superintendent Phillips; "Elementary Education -- Today and Tomorrow," led by Assistant State Superintendent for Instructional Services George Kahdy; and "Every Pupil and Competency Testing," conducted by Assistant Superintendent H.T. Conner. The administrators will be able to choose from approximately 18 different workshop topics.
