Miss Bounds, Mr. Huggins Exchange Vows On Saturday

Miss Susan Denise Bounds became the bride of Douglas Randall Huggins on August 6th at 3:00 p.m. at the First Baptist Church of Raeford. Miss Bounds is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.D. Bounds, Jr. of Raeford. Mr. Huggins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C.E. Huggins, Sr. of Tabor City.

The Reverend Billy C. Beaver officiated the double ring ceremony.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Glenn Langdon, and Charles Hottel was the tenor soloist and sang "More", "Because", and "The Lord's Prayer".

The church was decorated with greenery of palms, large baskets of white mums, gladioli, and brass candelabra.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a full length gown of nylon organza over taffeta with domestic reembrodered alencon lace. The bodice was empire waisted reembrodered with domestic alencon lace, appliques throughout the bodice and shoulders, with an opened scalloped neckline. The sleeves were bishop sleeves with cuffs of lace and seeded pearls. The skirt was A-lined with large lace appliques on the front skirt panel completely edged with domestic lace ruffle extending into a chapel length train. The headpiece was a Juliet cap covered with domestic alencon lace and seeded pearls. The face was framed with lace extending into a fingertip veil completely edged in alencon lace.

The bride carried a cascade of stephanotis and greenery centered with a white orchid.

Kathy Bounds of Raleigh, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Cammy Bounds of Raeford, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. They wore mint green knit halter dresses with an organza floral cape. They carried yellow and white daisies.

Other bridesmaids were Mrs. William McNeill, II and Miss Terrie Tucker of Raeford; Mrs. Edmund Huggins, sister-in-law of the bridegroom; Miss Marie Henderix of Raleigh; Mrs. David Keaton of Sunset Beach; and Miss Faye Joplin of Hudson. They wore the same style dresses in yellow. They carried yellow daisies and nosegays of babies' breath. In their hair they wore daisies and babies' breath.

Mr. Huggins was his son's best man. Ushers were Dennis Huggins of Tabor City; and Edmund Huggins of Raleigh, brothers of the bridegroom; George McFadyen of Raeford; Mike Craig, Lee Myers, and Bill Harwood of Charlotte; and Nathan Kelly of Raleigh.

The bride's mother wore a formal length blue gown of Chiffon over taffeta with long flowing chiffon sleeves. The bridegroom's mother wore a peach formal length gown of chiffon over taffeta with matching chiffon cape. Both mothers wore white orchids with a yellow throat.

After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will be at home in Tabor City.

Jones - Matthews Couple Wed Saturday In Georgia

Miss Judith Lynn Matthews and Dale Leroy Jones were married Saturday, August 6, at 7:30 p.m., at Decatur, Georgia. The double ring vows were heard by the Rev. C.W. Carpenter.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Lee Matthews of Dunedin, Fla. The bridegroom is son of Roy W. Jones of Route 2, Raeford, and the late Mrs. Jones.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Joyce Staven, organist, of Decatur, Ga., and William Daniels, soloist, of Raeford. Mr. Daniels sang "The Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white chiffon knit over bridal taffeta, designed with a keyhole neckline, full bishop sleeves, princess waist, and a circle skirt extending into a chapel-length train. The bodice was trimmed in beaded Venetian lace and matching lace circled the skirt. A three-tiered fingertip illusion veil added to the total look of elegance. A cascade of white roses, stephanotis, and babies' breath was carried by the bride.

Miss Janice Matthews was maid of honor and Miss Joyce Matthews was junior maid of honor. Both wore formal gowns of apricot chiffon designed with peplum and a bow of chiffon at the waist. They carried bouquets of daisies, apricot carnations, and babies' breath with apricot streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Ann Jones, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Janice Abdalian of St. Louis, Missouri, Miss Anne S. Broughton of Augusta, Ga., and Miss Deborah Ann Collins of Baxley, Ga. Their dresses and flowers were identical to those of the honor attendants.

Roy W. Jones served as his son's best man. Ushers were Stephen Lynn Barger of Mooresville, David Lindsay Bell of Woodruff, S.C., William Tracy Shultz of Mt. Sterling, Ky., Philip Gareth Viles of St. Albans, W. Va., and Allen Wilton Wood III of Raeford.

The mother of the bride wore a formal gown of Nile green quiana designed with an empire waist and jacket trimmed with matching lace. She wore a corsage of white roses. The bridegroom's grandmother wore a formal gown of pink polyester designed with empire waistline flowing skirt, and long sleeves. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

For traveling, the bride wore a street length dress of royal blue quiana with white accessories. She wore the corsage worn by her mother during the ceremony.

The newlyweds will be at home at 3948 Memorial College Ave., Apt. 6, Clarkston, Ga.

The bride is a graduate of Dunedin High School and Mercer University School of Pharmacy in Atlanta. The bridegroom is a graduate of Hoke County High School, Pfeiffer College in Misenheimer, and Mercer University School of Pharmacy.
