Jaycees Again Start 10 Million Penny Drive

What do you do if you're trying to raise ten million pennies and you only raise four million and 500,000?

According to the Hoke County Jaycees and Raeford Jaycees "10 Million Penny Project" Chairmen Jerry Betty and Mike Crowder, "If you are a Jaycee you keep trying until you succeed."

That attitude on the part of many Jaycees accounts for "Phase II" of the 10 Million Penny Project, a campaign undertaken last year by the North Carolina Jaycees to raise $100,000 to build a special swimming pool for handicapped children and adults. Once the goal is reached, the pool will be constructed at Camp Sertoma, the new Easter Seals camp near Winston-Salem.

The Hoke County and Raeford Jaycees will conduct a joint project to meet their local goal of 50,000 pennies or $500 by placing canisters near the cash registers of stores throughout Hoke County. County residents are encouraged to put their change from purchase into the canisters located at participating merchants. "Phase II" will climax in Greensboro on Nov. 19 at the Jaycee Mid-Year Convention when the Jaycees from across the state put the proceeds from their local projects together.

Midget Football Underway

The Midget Football Program started play last Saturday with the help of County Commissioner James Hunt, School Supt. Raz Autry and Police Chief Zeke Wiggins.

In the first game of the day the Falcons defeated the Rams by the score of 8-0.

In the second quarter Lowell Simmons dashed around left end on a one yd. run for the Falcons on a pass from Mark Slaughter to Kelvin Galberth for a two-point conversion.

The second half was strictly a defensive battle with David Lupo, Ronnie Huffman, Reggie Pickler and Marcus Virgil playing outstanding ball for the Rams. Steve Conoly, Jeffrey Fellows and Toni McRae and the rest of the Falcon defense held the Rams to a shutout.

In the second game the Redskins jumped out to an early two touchdown lead with Wayne Bratcher going around left end for a 15 yd. touchdown play and James McQueen picking up a loose fumble and springing in for the second TD.

The Vikings moved on a 12 yd. pass from Leon Bruton to Ronald Scurry. The defense of the Vikings was led by David Dalton, Eric Coley, and Tony Locklear. Mark McLean kept the Redskins in their own territory by some outstanding punts.

The Redskins defense was led by Clay Faulk, Robert Fisher and John Pleasant.
