

Sandhills Mental Health Center Names Area Chief

Steven Dingfelder, Ph.D. has accepted the position of area director of Sandhills Mental Health Center.

Dr. Dingfelder has served as chemical dependency coordinator, Northern Pines Unified Services Center, Cumberland, Wis., which serves a five-county rural area. Prior to this position, which he has held for three years, he was the program director for Alcohol and Drug Services at the Katherine Hamilton Mental Health Center,

Terre Haute, Ind. He has seven years of experience as a clinical psychologist providing psychotherapy and psychodiagnostic testing to clients of all age levels and socioeconomic backgrounds.

Dr. Dingfelder received his BA degree in child psychology from the University of Minnesota. His masters degree in psychology and doctorate degree in school-child psychology were received from Indiana State University. He currently is enrolled in the Masters Degree Program, University of Minnesota in Mental Health Administration.

He and wife, Claire, are the parents of three children aged nine years, one year, and one month.

Sandhills Mental Health Center serves a five-county catchment area. These counties are Anson, Hoke, Montgomery, Moore, and Richmond.

Dr. Dingfelder will assume his duties Nov. 14.

Jaycees Complete Course

Eight Raeford Jaycees have recently completed a course in personal dynamics offered by the United States Jaycees in the Individual Development Program.

The aim of the program is to "develop the whole man through a whole chapter."

The course was taught in two four-hour sessions. Dwight Smith, internal vice president of the North Carolina Jaycees, taught the first session and Allan Dossenback, district director for District D of the East Central Region of the North Carolina Jaycees, taught the final session Oct. 13.

The graduates included: Burnett Coleman, Robert Pecora, Ken Koonce, Tommy Connell, Mike Crowder, Billy McDiarmid, Charles Davis, Jr., and Kenneth Weston.

The course was one of 10 offered in the Individual Development Program and Raeford Jaycees hope to be able to offer the entire 10 during the fiscal Jaycee year.
