Barbers Clip Marks, Back Up To Front

By Larry Long

The Barbers from Hollingsworth moved back into the top spot by tripping Marks' Food Store four games last Thursday night in the Raeford Merchant Bowling action.

There remains a tie for the second spot with four teams battling it out. Last week Hunt's Trucking shutout McMillian Grocery four games. Earl's Electric turned back Raeford Auto three games to one. Airco Machine Shop dumped John's Short Shop three games to one and County Line Plaza picked up three wins out of four in its battle with Melton's Heating and A/C.

YOUTH LEAGUE -- Gametime for the Youth Football League has been switched to Friday afternoons at Armory Park, with the first match at 4:30. The Raiders downed the Cowboys 7-0 in the first action.

The high series last week went to Ronnie Taylor for Melton's Heating, a 576 series that included a 211 and a 201. The high 200 went to John's Howard Hendrix, a 220. Others over 200: Thad Marks for Marks' a 213. Hunt's Frazier Knight a 212, the Barbers' George McKoy a 212. James Gay for C.L. Plaza a 218. Hunt's Harry Walters a 210. Jimmy Baxley for Melton's a 206. Everett Bowen for Hunt's a 204 and Calvin Singletary for McMillian's a 201.

This week starts the second round of action in this season. The leaders from Hollingsworth face Raeford Atuo. County Line Plaza battles with Earl's. Hunt's Trucking tangles with John's Short Shop. Melton's Heating and A/C takes on McMillian Groc. and marks' Food meets Airco Machine Shop.

Amendment 3

FOR constitutional amendment empowering the qualified voters of the State to elect the Governor and Lieutenant Governor to a second successive term of the same office.

You deserve this choice.

Good intentions.

Once upon a time, some of King George's royal governors really pushed the colonists around. And you've been short-changed, ever since. After the Revolution, when state constitutions were being written, people remembered the crown's wrongs, and made sure that future governors couldn't abuse the power of the office. So, in many states, a governor was barred from serving more than one term. In N.C., the Assembly elected the Governor, up till 1835. Then, you got the vote — and the one-term limit. It seemed like a good idea, at the time.

But times change.

As our nation grew, and grew up, the rights of the voters and of the state legislatures grew stronger. The task of running a state government grew more complicated. And the task of finding really well-qualified people for the job of Governor grew more and more difficult.

So the states changed.

Seeing that the old fears of a governor gaining too much power were groundless under modern systems, more and more states realized that it only made sense to keep a good governor on the job, instead of automatically turning him out and having to start fresh with an unknown and unproven person.

43 of 50.

And so, state after state gave their voters this option: To reject or re-elect an experienced governor. Alaska and Hawaii brought it with them to statehood. In 1966, Oklahoma changed. In 1968, Louisiana and Missouri. 1970, Florida and Pennsylvania. West Virginia in 1972, and just last year, our neighbors in Georgia passed their amendment. Today, the voters of 43 of the 50 United States have this important right.

Here's our chance.

On November 8th, the voters of North Carolina can vote themselves this right. On the ballot, Constitutional Amendment #3 empowers the voters to re-elect their Governors and Lieutenant Governors for a second term, if they choose to.

A bipartisan effort.

A majority of the N.C. General Assembly voted to recommend this amendment. Leading Republicans, Democrats, and Independents support its passage. All of the past five former Governors: Luther H. Hodges, Terry Sanford, Dan K. Moore, Robert W. Scott, and James E. Holshouser, Jr. endorse it. And a recent citizens committee on constitutional reform urged this change be made.

For better government.

Our state suffers from the one-term limit.

Long-range problems like water, energy, and new industries and jobs demand long-range solutions. From short-range governors. By the time our governors learn the job, their term is half over. So they can't initiate and administer the kind of farsighted programs that our state needs. But even just the possibility of re-election would encourage and allow stronger, more consistent leadership.

A fairer share.

The one-term limit shortchanges North Carolina in other ways. The people who run the federal programs and who participate in the regional conferences know full well that the N.C. governor is an automatic lame duck. So they pay less attention to our needs. Squeaking wheels get the grease, but our governor isn't around long enough to establish the working relationships or make the necessary contacts to have the kind of influence our state deserves.

And your full rights.

But over and above all the logical, practical reasons for Amendment #3, the real key is that the one-term limit is contrary to the democratic process. It deprives you of a fundamental right. If the voters are capable of finding people good enough to be governor for four years, they are capable of deciding whether they want to re-elect them for four more. To continue a good job. And they are capable of deciding that the job wasn't good enough, so they can choose to reject them after four years. Either way, you should have the choice. And Amendment #3 gives it to you.

FOR constitutional amendment of the State to elect the Governor and Lieutenant Governor to a second successive term of the same office.
 AGAINST constitutional amendment of the State to elect the Governor and Lieutenant Governor to a second successive term of the same office.

Rookies Move Up

By La Daris McNeill

Whatever happened to sharing? Or dividing things equally? Tuesday night it was either you won or you lost!

The Rookies are fast becoming experts, winning four games over the Floaters. Thelma Grace got attention with a high game of 176 and a super series of 433. Debra McCall followed with a nice game of 175. Pernell Kelly and Sylvester McAllister had high series of 437 and 430.

The Under-the Hillers came to the top with four wins over Holly Davis Plus 2. The third man with a 200 or more game was Calvin B. Singletary. Calvin also had a super 494 series. In the action also was Larry McDonald with a 176 game and a 454 series. For Holly Davis Plus 2 things just wouldn't go. However, Blanch Farmer gave a great effort with a 159 and Marion gave a 433 series.

Spare Getters spared only one-half of a game with Three Plus 1. Charlotte Kelly was at her best, striking a fantastic 194 game and a 462 series. Mamie Leggett assisted with a 147 game. T. O'Ham had a 177 game and a 489 series and James Leggett gave his help with a 176 game.

The Scratchers found themselves getting nicked by Halsecalken. Sli Glines led them with a game of 193 and a devastating 502 series. Alexander Kelly tramped on a 474 series for the Scratchers.

"Sometimes when you bowl it seems you've done your best. Other times you bowl you leave it to the rest."

"Remember, even the best bowlers have a bad night. But when they get it together, they bowl out of sight!"
