Man Pleads No Contest To Affray

A local man was sentenced in District Court Friday on a charge of deadly weapon affray that resulted in a death.

Wayne Thomas, 507 North Saunders Street, Raeford, pleaded no contest to the charge. The incident resulted in the death of Laverne Freeman. Judge Joseph Dupree sentenced Thomas to not more than 24 months, suspended the sentence for five years, and placed him on probation for three and a half years. He was ordered not to carry a deadly weapon for five years and to pay $300 to be applied to the funeral expenses of Laverne Freeman and court costs.

Charles H. Livingston, P.O. Box 523, Raeford, was placed on probation for two years on a charge of misdemeanor possession of hashish. Entry of a verdict of guilty was withheld and he was ordered to pay court costs of $27.

Roosevelt McPherson, Rt. 3, Box 263, Raeford, was found not guilty of non-support.

Marvin Woods, Lot 4, N. Raeford MHP, Rt. 3, Raeford, pleaded guilty to trespass. Prayer for judgment was continued for three years provided the defendant does not go upon the property of or molest the prosecuting witness for a period of three years.

Alton Carthens, Red Springs, pleaded not guilty to a charge of trespass. He was found not guilty.

Harold Gene Brooks, Shannon, pleaded guilty to misdemeanor breaking and entering and larceny. On the first count he was committed to the custody of the Commissioner of Correction as a "committed youth offender" for a term of not more than 24 months. On the second count, he received the same judgment to begin at the expiration of the first sentence. He was ordered to pay restitution of $150, a fine of $10, and costs.

Fred Jacobs, Rt. 1, Box 128, Lumber Bridge, pleaded guilty to misdemeanor larceny. He received a sentence of two years. The defendant appealed.

Larry Wayne Brooks, Shannon, pleaded guilty to misdemeanor larceny. He was sentenced to two years, suspended for five years. He was placed on probation with the following conditions: that he not be convicted of shoplifting, larceny, fraud, embezzlement, or worthless checks, and that he pay restitution of $50, fine of $100, and costs.

Linwood Collins, Shannon, pleaded guilty to three counts of misdemeanor larceny. He was sentenced to two years on each count and placed on probation for three and one half years, providing he is not convicted of shoplifting, fraud, embezzlement, receiving stolen property, or passing worthless checks for five years. A fine of $150 was imposed and he was ordered to pay $100 restitution and costs.

Lloyd Allen Howington, 216 E. Fifth Ave., Raeford, pleaded guilty to misdemeanor larceny. He received a sentence of not more than 12 months, suspended and was placed on probation for two years. He was ordered to pay restitution of $25 and costs.

Raymond Lomax, Box 531, Raeford, pleaded guilty to two charges of assault. He received a prayer for judgment continued for three years and paid costs.

Garcia Rodriguez, Red Springs, pleaded guilty to engaging in an affray. He received a sentence of 30 days suspended for three years provided he not trespass on the property of Josepy Ray, including Larry's Food Mart, and that he not molest Joseph Ray for three years. He paid $23 fine and costs.

Raymond King, P.O. Box 249, Raeford, pleaded guilty to assault. He received prayer for judgment continued for three years and was fined $10 and costs.

Myron McPhatter, Rt. 1, Raeford, pleaded no contest to a charge of injury to personal property. He received a sentence of seven months.

James Harris Cross, Rt. 4, Box 37, Raeford, pleaded guilty to the offense of worthless check and two counts of violation of the prohibition law. He was sentenced to six months.

Edward T. Thompson, Elgin, S.C., pleaded guilty to driving under the influence. A charge of speeding 66 in a 55 m.p.h. zone was dismissed. He was sentenced to 90 days, suspended for 12 months, and ordered to surrender his license upon his arrival at home. He was fined $150 and costs.

James Robert Hudson, Oakwood Drive, Raeford, pleaded not guilty to second offense driving under the influence. He was found guilty of the lesser offense of careless and reckless driving. A sentence of four months was imposed and he was fined $200 and costs.

Jerald Martin, Lumberton, pleaded guilty to driving under the influence and driving without a license. He received a sentence of 12 months.

Final judgment was entered on Riley Jordan, 110 Fulton St., Raeford, who pleaded not guilty to driving under the influence (second offense) and was found guilty earlier. He was fined $300 and costs and ordered to surrender his license. He appealed.

James Walter Watson, Rt. 4, Box 101, Raeford, pleaded guilty to speeding 65 in a 55 m.p.h. zone. He received a prayer for judgment continued upon payment of cost. He was fined $8.

City Youth Named Morehead Nominee

Robert (Rob) B. McNeill, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Burns McNeill of Raeford, is one of two Robeson Country Day School nominees for the John Motley Morehead Award.

Created in 1945, the Morehead Awards are made each year for undergraduate study at the University of North Carolina. The awards are honorary ones which are accompanied by a grant of money to finance recipient's studies. Awards are made on the basis of moral character, leadership, scholastic ability, extracurricular attainments and physical vigor.

McNeill is president of the Beta Club and is presently serving on the school's student activity committee for accreditation. His school activities have included the Science Club, Spanish Club, newspaper staff and annual staff. He is listed in "Who's Who in American Colleges and High Schools" and "The Society of Distinguished American High School Students". Last year he attended the Governor's High School and served as a marshal for graduation. His athletic pursuits have included being a member of the school's basketball, soccer and baseball teams.

Hoke Man Elected Co-op Board President

Elias Rogers of Hoke County was elected president of the Lumbee River Electric Membership Cooperative board of directors at the Oct. 18 meeting.

Rogers, who has served 10 years on the board, was elected a vice-president in 1975. He joined the electric cooperative movement in 1967, becoming the first Indian elected to the board. He is presently serving as a director on the N.C. Electric Membership Cooperative State Board of Directors.

Timothy Strickland of Rt. 3, Maxton, defeated long-time director and board president Hubert Prevatte of Rt. 1, Pembroke, to represent members in the Smiths, Red Springs, Shannon, Rennett, Burnt Swamp, Philadelphus and Pembroke areas.

Elias Rogers

Fred T. Warren, an at-large director from Rt. 2, Raeford, was defeated by Gus Bullard of Rt. 2, Maxton.

Incumbent directors J.W. Hunt of Fairmont and Davis K. Parker Jr. of Fayetteville were re-elected to the 12-member board.

Mike Wood Walter Coley

A 16 year study of 3000 long-shoremen found the death rate from coronary heart attacks was 1/3 higher among sedentary workers than among those who handled the cargo. Heavy cigarette smoking created even higher risk of premature heart attacks than the sedentary life. The sedentary long-shoremen expended 925 fewer calories per day than the cargo handlers, which suggests a reduced diet in calories for the sedentary worker.
