

In District Court

Sentence Imposed For Liquor Still

A Raeford man was found guilty of violating probation laws in Friday's District Court session.

Elmore Campbell, Rt. 3 Box 336, Raeford, entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of having in his possession property designed for and used in the unlawful manufacturing of intoxicating liquors. Judge Joseph Dupree found him guilty and a term of 12 months was imposed. Sentence was suspended for three years provided the defendant pay a $200 fine and cost and that he violate no alcoholic beverage control laws for three years.

Mack R. Naylor, McCain Correction Center, McCain, pleaded guilty to misdemeanor escape. He was sentenced to 90 days to begin at the expiration of any and all sentences he is currently serving.

Willie Lee Sellers, College Park, Maryland, pleaded not guilty to driving left of center and unintentionally causing the death of Jerry Gordon McRae. He was found guilty and was sentenced to 12 months, suspended for two years upon payment of a $200 fine and cost. The defendant was ordered to violate no penal laws for two years. The defendant gave notice of appeal.

Mary Hammonds, Rt. 4 Lot 106, Raeford, pleaded not guilty to simple affray. She was found guilty and prayer for judgment was continued for three years with the court reserving the right to pass final judgment within three years. She was ordered to pay costs.

Betty Ann Morrissey, Rt. 3 Box 4, Raeford, pleaded guilty to simple affray. After hearing the evidence in this case, the court ordered the defendant's plea of guilty stricken from the record and directed a verdict of not guilty.

Henry Rayford Newby, Aberdeen, pleaded not guilty to assault. The prosecuting witness was ordered to pay cost for frivolous and malicious prosecution.

Alfred L. Baldwin, Rt. 3, Raeford, pleaded guilty to assault. Prayer for judgment was continued for three years with the court reserving the right to pass final judgment within three years. The defendant was ordered to pay cost of court.

Ervin E. McCain, Rt. 1, Raeford, pleaded guilty to assault by pointing a gun. He was sentenced to six months, suspended for five years upon payment of a $50 fine and costs. He was ordered not to carry a deadly weapon concealed or otherwise for five years.
