Bridge

Mrs. Upchurch

Mrs. Lewis Upchurch, Jr. was hostess for her bridge club when members entertained their guests at a holiday dinner party at the home of Mrs. John Walker on Thursday evening.

Christmas decorations were used in the entertaining room, and an open fire was enjoyed in the living room. Four tables covered with linen cloths and centered with lighted candles encircled with holly were set for dining after which bridge was played. Each place was marked with a Christmas favor.

Club high scorer was Mrs. Alfred K. Leach, and Mrs. Charles Clark of Morehead City, who is in Raeford for the holidays, was visitor's high.

Refreshments were served during the evening. Members exchanged Christmas gifts, and everyone picked a seashell Christmas ornament from a white sprayed tree.

Guests were Mrs. Charles Clark, Mrs. Berder Niven, Mrs. Wyatt Upchurch, Mrs. John Harris, Mrs. June Johnson, Mrs. Jeff Davis, Mrs. Marie C. Brown, and Mrs. Crawford Thomas, Jr.

Couples' Bridge

Mr. and Mrs. George Ashley entertained members of their couples' bridge club on Saturday evening. After dining at the Captain's Place, bridge was played at the Ashley's home.

Dessert was served between progressions. Snacks, Coke, and Russian tea were also enjoyed during the evening.

High score prizes were awarded to Mrs. Julian King, ladies' high, and to Ricky English, men's high.

Sharon Lee Conoly

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Franklin Conoly announce the engagement of their daughter, Sharon Lee, to John Edward Nichols, son of Mrs. Ruby W. Nichols of Raeford and the late Lloyd Edward Nichols.

The wedding will take place on February 26 at the Raeford Presbyterian Church.

The bride-elect, a graduate of Hoke High School, attended Sandhills Community College and is presently employed at Wilcox and McFadyen, Attorneys at Law.

The prospective bridegroom, a graduate of Hoke High School, is presently employed at Burlington Menswear in Raeford.

All friends and relatives are invited to attend.

UDC Meets

The Raeford UDC Chapter met December 9 at the home of Mrs. Ethel Monroe. Co-hostess was Mrs. Walta Bostic.

The program, "Follow the Feathers" - a tribute to JEB Stuart - was given by Mrs. Margaret McMahan of Fayetteville. The story of "Dixie" was given and read by Misses Josephine Hall and Isabel McFadyen.

The annual bazaar auction sale, which is the money project of the chapter, was held. Each member carried Christmas gifts to be distributed at the UDC home in Fayetteville.

During the social hour, refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Home Life Dept. Has Annual Christmas Dinner

The Home Life Dept. of the Woman's Club had their annual Christmas dinner with their husbands as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M.A. Maxwell. Mrs. Tommy Macks was co-hostess.

Guests were served buffet-style and seated at the dining room table and at small tables in the den and kitchen.

The dining table was covered with a green linen cloth with net overlay and centered with a green, white and gold arrangement. The color scheme of green, white, and gold was used throughout the living and dining rooms.

A brief business meeting and social hour followed the dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. W.K. Morgan, Mark and Melynie, spent last weekend in Asheboro with Mr. and Mrs. Larry Phillips and Brad.

Sandhills Christian Woman's Club To Meet Dec 21

The Sandhills Christian Woman's Club will meet Wednesday, December 21 at the Country Club of North Carolina at 11:30 a.m.

The special feature will be presented by Sue Carrick of Star. She will demonstrate how to wrap Christmas packages uniquely and inexpensively.

Special music will be provided by the Children's Choir of Grace Christian School of Sanford.

The featured speaker will be Mr. Max Rice from Traveler's Rest, South Carolina. Mr. Rice is director of Look-Up Lodge and Camp, a facility of lay Christian Association. He is the author of two books.

The Christian Woman's Club is a National Association of interdenominational women which meets for luncheon once a month in many of the leading cities and areas throughout this country and Canada.

All are welcome. Call 875-3759 for your reservations by Monday, December 19th. Reservations must be made.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Maxwell spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Bill McPhaul and children in South Boston, Va. They went especially to see their new granddaughter, Kathryn Ray.

Book Fair

There will be a Book Fair at Robeson Country Day School in Red Springs from Dec. 14 through Dec. 20 during normal school hours.

Members of the public are invited to come and browse through the display of new books in the school's library and make purchases if they like. The attractive volumes would make excellent Christmas gifts.

The books will range from kindergarten through grade 12 levels and will cover fictional, non-fictional, and contemporary subjects.

June Dashiell, media coordinator for the school, is quite excited about the book fair and feels that there should be more such events open to the public.

PTA Meets

The Hoke County PTA will meet Monday, Dec. 19, at 7 p.m. at Scurlock Elementary School on Rt. 2.

George Barbour, director of the Hoke County Mental Health Clinic, will be the guest speaker. All interested citizens and members are invited to attend.
