4-H Corner

By Judy Crisman

Hoke County hosted the 4-H District Council Breakfast and Planning meeting Dec. 3. The Senior Teen 4-H Club cooked and served the breakfast for 30 people. Plans for the 1978 District activities were discussed.

The 4-H Valentine Dance will be held Feb. 18 from 7:30-11 p.m. Robeson County will host. If you are 13-19 years of age, please make plans to attend. April 22 and 23 is the date set for the District Spring Retreat. It will be held in Moore County at Camp Easter. At the retreat there will be a pig-pickin, workshops, programs, a worship service, and also the District officer election.

Our state project was also discussed which is "Leap Year" (Leisure Education and Awareness Program). We want this project to work within the clubs, counties, district, and state. You will be hearing more about Leap Year.

County Council Meeting

There was a county council meeting Dec. 6 at the County Office Building. The District Council Breakfast was the topic of discussion.

The county council officer elections are coming up soon so clubs get your nominations in by Dec. 22.

Scholarship Available At Citadel

A scholarship for an outstanding high school graduate is available at The Citadel, the Military College of South Carolina.

The scholarship was established in memory of Capt. Joe Wofford Eubanks of The Citadel class of 1969 who gave his life in Vietnam in June 1972. The recipient of the $500-a-year scholarship must major in history at the military college.

For information and application write to Chairman, Committee on Scholarships, The Citadel, Charleston, S.C. 29409. Completed applications must be received by the Scholarship Committee before March 1. An accepted application for admission must be on file before a scholarship application can be considered.

Voting will be in January. Also, applications for all-day workshops on creative cookery and modeling and grooming are due by Dec. 22. The date for Achievement Night is sometime in Feb. If you would like to give a demonstration this year, contact Anna Peele at the Extension Office.

attend this meeting.

The Agricultural Extension office has a variety of information on various subjects. Leaflets, bulletins and many other types of information are distributed to any one that requests them. The local agents are backed up by specialists and researchers from our Land Grant University. These people are also interested in suggestions as to research problems that should be worked on. If you have never been to the Extension office on South Magnolia Street, you are encouraged to visit it. Agricultural agents, Home Economics agents and a Housing agent are available for providing information.

THERE'S SOMETHING OUT THERE THAT CAN EAT YOUR SAVINGS AND CANCEL YOUR PLANS FOR THE FUTURE.

The beast is lean and hungry. Waiting to pounce out of the darkness without a warning.

And no one from the President's advisors to your Uncle Fred can tell you when.

It's called inflation. And it's made strong men weep and turned family budgets into scrap paper.

But there is a way you can protect your family and your future from this predator. By earning more money on your hard earned money.

Southern National Bank has new, safe ways that let you earn up to fifty percent more than regular savings. With no risk!

So, don't take a chance with the unknown.

The future is what you save.

Talk to Southern National today about high yield, low risk savings.

And don't worry about things that go bump in the night.
