Vets Ask

EDITOR'S NOTE: Following are representative questions answered daily by VA counselors. Full information is available at any VA office.

Q -- I received an honorable discharge after completing a two-year enlistment. Am I eligible to receive a headstone or grave marker even though I had no wartime service?

A -- A headstone or grave marker is available for any deceased veteran of wartime or peacetime service (other than active duty for training) who was discharged under conditions other than dishonorable.

Q -- Are all patients eligible for reimbursement of transportation costs for visits to VA hospitals?

A -- No. Only veterans with service-connected disabilities or those on an assigned and scheduled income level can receive reimbursement for transportation expenses.

Q -- Does a veteran have to pay NSLI premiums if he/she becomes disabled?

A -- A waiver of premiums is authorized when a veteran becomes continuously totally disabled before his/her 65th birthday and remains totally disabled for six consecutive months. Application for waiver should be submitted to the office where the veteran's insurance records are located.

WALK-A-THON SATURDAY -- Sheriff Dave Barrington will join seven-year-old Tonya Roper (left) and 10-year-old Deedee Graham in a 20-mile walk-a-thon here Saturday to raise money for the Victory Temple Church. The walk will start at the courthouse at 7 a.m. Those who would like to sponsor walkers for the event, call the pastor, Eldress Roper, at 875-5782.

Sunday School Lesson

Background Scripture:

Acts 4:32 through 5:11.

Devotional Reading:

Romans 12:3-13.

I suspect that lots of preachers take an ill-disguised delight in the story of Ananias and Sapphira (Acts 5:1-11). It makes a perfect text for the Every Member Canvas or annual budget sermon.

The story is simple in outline. In a period when many of the disciples owned all things in common to meet the needs of the whole fellowship, a man and wife, Ananias and Sapphira, sold a piece of property and took the proceeds and laid them at the feet of Peter, the foremost apostle of the church. Ananias led Peter to believe that the money he was offering to the church was the complete revenue from the sale. Actually, it was only a portion.

To Ananias' shock, however, Simon Peter knew that he was telling a lie and he confronted him with his deception. Terrified to be discovered in his lie, Ananias dropped dead at Peter's feet. Later, his wife also came to Peter and, not knowing what had happened to her husband, repeated the same lie. She likewise died on the spot when accused by Peter.

Actually, the point of the story is not that Ananias and Sapphira did not give all the proceeds of the sale to the church. Peter made this clear when he said to Ananias: "While it (the property) remained unsold, did it not remain your own? And after it was sold, was it not at your disposal?" (5:4). In other words, the sharing of their worldly goods was completely voluntary. No one had to do it. Ananias and Sapphira made this decision on their own.

Where this couple went wrong, rather, was in trying to "have their cake and eat it too," as the old saying goes. They wanted to keep some of the profits (their privilege) while at the same time pretending that they were turning over to the church the whole amount.

Actually, our stewardship problem as Christians today is not so much that we don't -- but that, like Ananias and Sapphira, we pretend that we are giving a great deal more than we are. What we share with others is pitifully small, but the root of our sin -- and that's what it is -- lies in our protests that we are sharing "all we can." We give the impression that our giving is sacrificial, when, in fact, it represents a very small part of our income. We continually protest how little we have and at the same time are living in a material prosperity that is

Educators Endorse McNeill Smith

Guilford County Senator McNeill Smith has been endorsed in his bid for the Democratic nominations for the United States Senate by PACE, the political action arm of the North Carolina Association of Educators.

J. Wayne Miller, chairman of PACE, announced at a news conference that Senator Smith was endorsed enthusiastically by PACE on the basis of his strong and positive legislative record, his firm commitment to education, and his clear understanding of educational issues facing North Carolina and the nation.

Barrington Enters Walk-A-Thon

Hoke County Sheriff Dave Barrington is among the walkers who are planning to go 20 miles Saturday to raise money for the Victory Temple Church here.

Two young girls, Tonya Roper, age 7 and Deedee Graham, 10, will also be joining the walk.

The event begins at 7 a.m. Saturday in front of the courthouse. The 20-mile route circles Raeford and ends where it began, at the courthouse.

The church hopes to raise $1,000 for the purchase of land for the church. Members called on local businesses this week to sponsor walkers, which are coming from Raeford and Laurinburg.

Booths for donations will be set up near the courthouse. One of the church choirs is scheduled to sing that evening after the walkers return.

Those who wish to sponsor someone in the walk are urged to call the pastor, Eldress Roper, at 875-5782.

McPherson Receives M.S. Degree

Thomas R. McPherson, Jr., grandson of Mr. and Mrs. D.K. Parker Sr., of Rt. 4, Raeford, was awarded a Master of Science degree in electrical engineering from North Carolina State University last December.

McPherson's major concentration was in the field of telecommunications, with a minor in math. He served as a research assistant in the Department of Electrical Engineering and maintained a perfect 4.0 grade point average.

For his master's thesis, McPherson researched a scheme for doubling the efficiency of digital communications networks.

He received a B.S. degree in physics from Davidson College and a B.S. in electrical engineering from N.C.S.U. He has one professional publication to his credit. McPherson is a member of the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers, Tau Beta Pi, a national honorary engineering society, and Sigma Pi Sigma, a national honorary physics society.

McPherson will be working with Digital Communications Corporation of Gaithersburg, Md., as a member of their technical research staff. He and his wife, Kathy, reside at 12 Goodport Court, Gaithersburg, Md.

Hostetler Chairs Campaign

Charles A. Hostetler of Raeford has been selected Hoke County Campaign Chairman for Judge Walter Brock, candidate for the Democratic nomination for the State Supreme Court.

The selection of Hostetler, and his enthusiastic acceptance, was announced this week in Raleigh by Dan E. Stewart and Mrs. L.Y. (Bess) Ballentine, Co-Chairmen of Judge Brock's Statewide Campaign.

Judge Brock, a member of the North Carolina Court of Appeals for 10 years, is currently its Chief Judge and previously was a Superior Court Judge. He is a retired Lieutenant Colonel of the U.S. Air Force and saw active service in World War II.
