

Scouts Need Name For Campsite

The new Pines of Carolina Girl Scout campsite in Richmond county needs a name. Girl Scouts in the 20-county council are being asked to submit their choice of names.

The campsite is a large primitive area, with low sandy hills and tall pine trees. There are beaver ponds and beautiful spring-fed creeks, open fields and a wide variety of plant and animal life. The camp will be a place to study and appreciate the natural environment.

Names submitted should reflect the special nature of the campsite. Send names and a statement of reason for the selection to the council office by April 30. The final choice will be announced at the opening ceremony on May 28. For further information, girl scouts should contact their volunteer area chairman or field director.

Trade Fair Scheduled Next Week

The Woman's Club of Fayetteville will present its 11th annual Trade Fair, "EXPO '78," on April 1 and 2 at Cumberland County Memorial Arena, and tickets may be purchased at the door.

Proceeds from the Trade Fair are used for the restoration and maintenance of the three historical buildings at Heritage Square.

Doors will open at 11 a.m. Saturday, April 1, and close at 9 p.m. Sunday, April 2, the hours will be from 1 to 7 p.m. There will be free parking.

In addition to many exhibitors who have had booths every year, there will be many new offerings. Some of the interesting items: Rug Cleaning, Mountain-made furniture, Radio Stations, Fashions in Eye Glasses, Crafts, Floral displays, boats and campers, Crime prevention and Community Watch Programs, Food, Fabrics, Jewels and Junk, N.C. Museum of Art, U.S. Post Office, a puppet show, and Buttons the Clown and Clown Alley.

The list goes on and on, as there is something of interest for everyone, both adults and children.

Gem Show In Raleigh

The Tar Heel Gem and Mineral Club of Raleigh will sponsor its second annual Gem and Mineral Show March 31 - April 2 in the Scott Building on the N.C. State fairgrounds.

The Tar Heel Gem and Mineral Club is a non-profit group organized to further knowledge and increase appreciation of the earth sciences, geology, gemstones and minerals. There is no admission charge.

Many educational exhibits and lectures are planned. There will also be demonstrations of different phases of lapidary work including faceting, polishing stones for jewelry, jewelry making, silver work and opal polishing.

Show hours will be 6-10 p.m. Friday, 10 a.m.-9 p.m. Saturday and 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Sunday.

Upchurch Faculty Rescuemen Wins Benefit Game Complete CPR Course

The Upchurch faculty defeated the Hoke High faculty by a slim 85-84 decision in a basketball benefit game to aid the Upchurch athletic fund.

With the action at a high pitch, it appeared as though the N.C.A.A. Championship was at stake as the two teams battled it out up and down the court.

At the end of the first quarter Upchurch had scored 18 to Hoke's 17. Upchurch kept up the pressure and had a good cushion by half time, 38-26.

W.K. Morgan and Kevin Sampson were high scorers for Upchurch with a 27, 23 performance. Tubby Smith led the Hoke attack with 47 points, followed by McMillan's 14. Smith gave a fine performance and the crowd was ecstatic at each rebound he commanded, and each dunk that was forced to the bottom of the basket.

The pace of the game never seemed to lighten up as the Bucks pulled within five points after the third quarter, 57-52. The men seemed to fight the fatigue that was surely a big factor for both teams but the last quarter denied any fatigue as Upchurch scored 28 points to the Bucks' 32.

Heilig-Meyers Considers Sale

Hyman Meyers, president of Heilig-Meyers Company, said this week that the company is engaged in preliminary discussions regarding the possible acquisition of the company by an undisclosed buyer but that no agreement has been reached. No further details were available at this time, he said.

Canadians were the first to play the modern version of ice hockey. In time the sport spread to other lands. Today, more than 200,000 players ages 5 to 19 belong to amateur teams in the United States, reports National Geographic World magazine.

The final score of 85-84 was the type the fans really enjoyed; very physical and very exciting.

Many thanks to the Hoke High faculty, the fans and all who gave of their time and energy. Maybe this week's vacation will give the players a chance to heal their bruises.

Student Bowling League Organizes

The Hoke County Parks and Recreation Commission and the Hoke County Board of Education are working together with Tom Iulucci, owner of Lafayette Lanes in Fayetteville, in order to sponsor a student bowling program.

Students will be taught the basics of bowling and formed into teams (3 to 5 students each) to bowl in one of three handicap leagues: elementary, junior high, and senior high school.

The participants will be separated for team competition by grade groups: three - six, seven - eight, and nine - 12. Each team will bowl a set of two games against a different team in the same league each day of bowling.

The program will be held on Saturday mornings for eight weeks beginning April 15 - June 3. Weekly cost will be $2.25 per participant which includes transportation, two games, shoes and administration fee. Transportation and drivers will be provided.

Eight members of the Hoke County Rescue Squad completed a Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) course March 2, instructed by squad member Johnny Milton.

The nine-hour course instructed the men on how to revive people whose hearts and breathing have stopped for one reason or another. Eleven members of the squad are now proficient in these life-saving techniques.

The course was given at the Rescue Squad Building here.

The eight who successfully completed the instruction were: Eddie Allen, Jimmy Riley, Mitchell Walters, Carlton Brock, Jim Wade, Chris Gaddy, Steve Wimberly and Jerry Johnson.

Bobby Conoly and Jim Wade recently completed a Emergency Medical Service Communications course at Fayetteville Tech. The course involved communications with a hospital while en route with a patient.

The maximum number of students which will be eligible to participate will be 160. Each Saturday the busses will depart from the Gibson Building at Hoke County High School at 8:30 a.m. and will return to the same location at noon.

Parents are responsible for providing transportation to and from the Gibson Building. Buses will depart very promptly each Saturday. Departure and arrival times may have to be changed as deemed necessary due to participation.

Students interested in this program must complete the registration requirements by Friday, April 7, at the Hoke County Parks and Recreation office, first come, first serve basis. Without the minimum number of students (40) this recreational activity will be cancelled.

For questions contact either the Hoke County Parks and Recreation office or the Hoke County Board of Education.
