Judge Dupree Hands Down Three Active Sentences

District Court Judge Joseph E. Dupree handed down active sentences for three men on speeding and worthless check charges in last Friday's court session.

Louis Frank Sneed, Jr., Washington, N.C., pleaded guilty to a charge of speeding 64 in a 55 m.p.h. zone. He was sentenced to 31 days, suspended upon payment of cost, taxing onto the cost the sum of $75 restitution for Hoke County to be applied to the Sheriff's Department. The suspended sentence was activated and the defendant ordered to serve the 31 days for failure to comply with the judgment.

David Ellerbee, P.O. Box 713, Raeford, pleaded guilty to two counts of worthless checks. Ellerbee was charged with writing worthless checks for $6.95 and $5.29 to Faye's Grocery. He was sentenced to 30 days in each case, with the second sentence to begin at the expiration of the first. The defendant gave notice of appeal.

Marvin R. Jones, Rt. 2 Box 64, Raeford, was given an active term of 60 days on a charge of inadequate support of child and a sentence of 30 days on a charge of worthless check. He was called and failed to appear in Friday's session, and an assistant district attorney moved that the judgment be entered. The second sentence is to begin at the expiration of the first.

John C. Jones, 41, Rt. 1 Box 822, Raeford, pleaded not guilty to charges of breaking and entering and assault with intent to commit rape. He was charged with breaking into a Rt. 3 home where he allegedly used a butcher knife to threaten a 12-year-old youth and attempted to rape her. Probable cause was found to bind the defendant over for trial in Superior court.

Parnell Robinson, 17, was ordered to serve a two-year sentence that had been suspended in the original action against him. The court found that he had violated the conditions of the probation judgment that ordered him to remain gainfully employed or in school, and the suspension was revoked and the defendant ordered to serve two years as a committed youthful offender. He was given credit for four days jail time.

Kenneth Roger Brewer, Rt. 1 Box 48E, Red Springs, was found not guilty of assault on a female.

Earl Bullard, S. Main St., Raeford, pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault on a law officer. He was found guilty of the lesser included offense of simple assault. The defendant was ordered to pay costs.

Ellis Locklear, Rt. 3 Box 312, Raeford, was found not guilty of assault on a female. The prosecuting witness was ordered to pay costs for frivolous and malicious prosecution.

Virginia Goodman, Rt. 4, Raeford, pleaded guilty to a charge of shoplifting. She was sentenced to six months, suspended for five years upon payment of a $25 fine and costs. She was ordered not to be convicted of the crimes of shoplifting, larceny, receiving, fraud, embezzlement or passing worthless checks for five years. She was also ordered not to go on the premises of Mack's Stores in Raeford for five years.

Mitchell Hammonds, Rt. 2, Red Springs, pleaded guilty to a charge of trespass. He was sentenced to six months and sentence was suspended for five years upon payment of costs. The defendant was ordered not to go upon the premises of the prosecuting witness for five years unless by written invitation.

Hudell Hammonds, alias "Moose," Red Springs, pleaded guilty to a charge of trespass. He was sentenced to 90 days, suspended for five years upon payment of costs. He was ordered not to go upon the premises of the prosecuting witness for five years unless by written invitation.
