

Recreation Bits

Everyone who is registered for the tennis lessons set to start May 20, remember Hoke High Courts, your can of tennis balls, your $3 registration fee, and be ready for your class at either 7:30, 8:30, or 9:30.

Senior Citizen's Trip

The Hoke County Parks and Recreation Commission is sponsoring a trip to Cross Creek Mall in Fayetteville for the first 35 senior citizens who register.

The bus will depart from the back of the Raeford United Methodist Church promptly at 9:15 a.m. Wednesday, May 24, and will return to the same location by 3 p.m.

In order to register, you must call the Recreation office (875-5603) to get your name on the list. There will be a 50 cent gas expense with all other expenses depending on the individual.

Youth Softball

All those interested in playing Youth Softball (rising sophomores, juniors, and seniors), Girls' Youth Softball (ages 11-14), and Girls' Midget Softball (ages 7-10) will have a meeting on Saturday, May 20 at 11. The meeting will be held at Armory Park. All interested participants should be present.

Kids' Dog Show Set

Hey kids! You and your dog are invited to enter the Kid's Dog Show on Saturday, May 27, 10 a.m., at Armory Park.

There'll be awards for everyone. Get your entry blank today at the Hoke County Parks and Recreation Office. Spectators are invited, too. The show is co-sponsored as a public service by the Hoke County Parks and Recreation Commission, the Cub Scouts of Raeford, the National Recreation and Park Association, and Ken-L-Ration.

In case of rain, the dog show will be moved indoors at the N.C. National Guard Armory. Contact the recreation office (875-5603) for further information.

In Thursday's action, Tex-Elastic scored in all six innings to hand Sandhills a 10-0 loss. Dennis Adams and Joe McCollum paved the way for T.E. with two hits apiece. Roger Malden had two hits in two trips to the plate to lead Sandhills.

Sandhills 000 000 - 0
Tex-Elastic 311 221 - 10
(HRS) D. Adams

In the second game, Pig-n-Chicken used only five innings to dispose of the 76-ers 14-4. Three straight homeruns in the third inning and a seven-run fourth highlighted P-C's 15-hit attack. Henry Thompson led the way with a 3-3 performance. Nate Singletary was 2-2 for the 76-ers.

76-ers 103 00 - 4
Pig-n-Chicken 213 71 - 14
(HRS) Singletary, Barch 2, H. Daniels, Thompson 2, Jackson

In the third game of the evening, the Gray Ghost turned a five-run sixth inning into a 12-6 win over Odom's Roofing. Tubby Smith paced the victory for the winners with a 4-4 night at the plate. Jesse Taylor was 3-3 for O.R.

Co-Ed Volleyball League Organizes

The Hoke County Parks and Recreation Commission is sponsoring a Summer Co-Ed Volleyball league. An organizational meeting will be held at the recreation office on Thursday, June 8, 8 p.m. All interested participants should now begin to plan their teams. One representative from each perspective team should attend the organizational meeting.

All adult players must be 18 years of age or have graduated from high school. Each team will be limited to a maximum of 10 members each. A team may start and continue a game with five players: three men and two women or vice versa, but not four men and one female or vice versa.

If there are people who are interested in playing, but do not have enough members for their own team, you too are encouraged to attend the organizational meeting Thursday, June 8, 8 p.m.

Also for all who are under 18 years of age and who are still in high school, an organizational meeting will be held at the Recreation office on Thursday, June 15, 8 p.m. All team representatives are urged to attend.

For questions contact the Recreation office 875-5603.
