

Rockfish News

Mrs. Louise L. Watson

The weather for the past few days had made us wonder if Spring really has arrived - but don't you worry - a few months from now - we'll look back and remember when - it was COLD!

Galatia Presbyterian Church reports they had an unusually large crowd Sunday. We had no news from the other area churches.

The Rockfish Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. Amos Grant.

Mrs. Ethel Monroe spent the weekend at Long Beach with Mr. and Mrs. Graham Monroe of Raeford.

Mrs. Herman Koonce and Mrs. George Monroe spent Friday night in Rowland. On Saturday they attended a meeting of the UDC.

The community extends sympathy to the wife and family of Mr. Sidney Sumner who died Friday. Mrs. Sumner (Marian Gibson) is a former resident of Rockfish.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight English and daughter, Samantha of Conover spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Grady English.

Mrs. Sharon Hutchison, who recently had surgery at Cape Fear Valley hospital, is convalescing at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Carl Strickland.

Mr. and Mrs. June Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. A.L. Long and Mrs. Mae Maxwell of Raeford visited Mr. and Mrs. Winford Brock of Fayetteville Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Dan Wood of Latta, South Carolina had lunch with his grandmother, Mrs. A.W. Wood, Sunday. Those visiting Mrs. Wood

Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Monroe and sons, Ronald and Jason of McCain and Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Wood of Raeford. Mrs. Wood has been sick for several weeks. We wish for her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. James Waller of Fayetteville visited her mother, Mrs. Grad English Tuesday.

A group from Philippi Church visited Open Arms Rest Home in Raeford Sunday. They carried a gift for each resident of the home. This was such a thoughtful gesture. We all should remember the shut-ins more.

Mrs. David Miller of Fayetteville visited in the community Tuesday.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
A good thing to remember and a better thing to do
To work with the Construction gang
And not the wrecking crew.
