

McKoy - Singletary Vows Are Spoken Saturday

Arlene Singletary, daughter of Mrs. John F. Singletary and James W. McKoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James McKoy of Raeford were married Saturday, May 24, at 4:00 p.m. at Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church.

The Rev. C.L. Betha officiated at the double ring ceremony. Wedding music was provided by Edward Melvin, pianist, and Valerie McKoy, soloist, sister of the groom.

The bride was escorted by her brother, Wendell Singletary. She wore a white Queen Anne's neckline gown with long chantilly lace sleeves with an empire bodice covered with seeded pearls, and a train of three layers of chantilly lace.

Matron of Honor was Mrs. Veronica McPhatter, who wore solid pink with matching picture hat and carried burgundy flowers.

Honorary attendant was Miss Alonda Singletary, who was attired just like the matron of honor.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Annie R. Hadley, Miss Valerie McKoy and Miss Linda McKoy. They wore pink full length dresses with a large chiffon collar. Pink spring hats were worn by all attendants.

Marshall Hadley was best man for the groom. Ushers were Alonza McKoy, Terry McKoy, Willis Clark and Carlos Singletary.

Honorary ushers were Clea McPhatter and Calvin Hadley.

Child attendants were Keisha McLean as flower girl, and ring bearer was Todd Carter.

The bride is an employee of Southern National Bank in Raeford and the groom is employed at Burlington, Ind. They will make their home in Raeford.

Mrs. James W. McKoy

RECEPTION

The reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The table was centered with an arrangement of white carnations, pink rose buds, and burgundy flowers, garnished with babies' breath and greenery.

Minnie McKoy was in charge.

BARBECUE COOKOUT

The bride's sisters hosted a cookout on the lawn of their mother's house for the bride and groom. Approximately 100 guests attended.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Linda Gray and daughter, Serena, from Brooklyn, New York and Alene Thomas of Atlanta, Ga.

Susan Neeley Is Honored At Luncheon

Susan Neeley, June bride-elect was honored at a three course luncheon on May 17 by Mrs. John Campbell and Mrs. Kerr Stevens at the home of Mrs. Campbell.

Upon arrival the honoree was given a corsage of pink and white rosebuds by the hostesses and later was presented gifts of silver and cloisonne.

Places were laid for twelve at the dining room table and a small table. Lovely arrangements of roses were used on the tables and in the dining area.

Mrs. Robert Waring of Raleigh was a special guest.

Currie - Brafford

Lt. Col. [ret.] and Mrs. David Scott Currie, Jr. of Raeford, announce the engagement of their daughter, Linda Lee to William Paul Brafford of Raleigh, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Grady Brafford, Jr. of Henderson. Miss Currie is a graduate of Peace College and Meredith College. Mr. Brafford is a graduate of North Carolina State University. The wedding will take place on August 23 in the Raeford Presbyterian Church.

Ferrell - Bottoms

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Neal Ferrell of Saxapahaw, announce the engagement of their daughter, Anna Harlee Ferrell to Raymond Mark Bottoms, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cecil Bottoms of High Point. Miss Ferrell is the granddaughter of Mrs. Carl Freeman, who resides on 312 East Edinborough Ave. in Raeford. Miss Ferrell is a 1977 graduate of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, and is currently working on her master's degree in music education at the University of Maryland at College Park. She teaches general music and chorus at P.B. Smith Elementary School in Warrenton, Virginia. Mr. Bottoms attended Western Carolina University, and graduated from the Pennsylvania Gunsmith School in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania in 1973. He is the owner and operator of "The Sportsman Shop" on North Main Street in High Point. He is also employed by Western Electric in Winston-Salem. The wedding is planned for August 9 at Saxapahaw United Methodist Church in Saxapahaw. The couple will make their home in High Point.

SOCIAL ITEMS

Dial 875-2121
 And Tell Us About Them!

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Baker had as their guests this week, their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Breece and girls of Orem, Utah.

Social Events

Mrs. Steve Phillips, Social Reporter, 875-4171

Parkton Church Is Scene Of Jackson-Barbour Wedding

The marriage of Miss Melba Jean Barbour and William David Jackson, Jr. was solemnized in a three o'clock ceremony on Sunday, May 25, at the Parkton Baptist Church. The Rev. Frank Bowers officiated for the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Barbour of Davis's Bridge and the bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William David Jackson, Sr. of Parkton.

Mrs. David R. Parnell, organist, and Mrs. J.D. Cobb, Jr. provided wedding music. Selections included "O Perfect Love" and "The Greatest of These Is Love."

The altar setting included three seven-branched colonial candelabra with globes and tapers entwined with greenery, centered by a mass arrangement of spring flowers in rainbow colors with a double kneeling bench. The pews of the mothers were marked with colonial seat markers with globes and tapers surrounded by flowers and streamers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white organza and Chantilly-type lace. The high necked bodice, bishop sleeves, and triple flounced skirt train were of the same chantilly lace. She wore a matching lace cap and a three-tiered lace-trimmed veil. Her colonial bouquet was of white roses, daisies, and gypsophila, with an accent of yellow roses.

Mrs. William David Jackson, Jr.

Miss Debbie Armstrong served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Charlene Averitt of Raeford; Millie Sanders of McColl, S.C., cousin of the bridegroom; Mrs. Michael Smith of Parkton; and Tina Worman of Burnville, Pa. cousin of the bridegroom. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Sally Gartrell of Hope Mills, niece of the bride.

The attendants wore rainbow-colored gowns with spaghetti straps and full sunburst pleated skirts with cacao jackets and matching picture hats. They carried colonial bouquets of spring flowers in rainbow colors.

Miss Melissa Lawing was flower girl, and Josh Gartrell was ring bearer. The flower girl carried a basket of mixed flowers.

Honorary bridesmaids were Mrs. Denny Parker of Rocky Mt., Miss Dawn Lawing of Parkton, Mrs. Dennis Davis of Selma, cousins of the bride; and Miss Sheila McIntyre of Red Springs. They were all attired in rainbow-colored gowns of different styles and wore a corsage of carnations.

Mr. Jackson served as his son's best man. Ushers were Michael Smith, Dennis Gartrell, Eugene Jackson, James Cobb, and Dannie Jackson.

rosetta colored gown with a sheer coat of polyester chiffon and long sheer sleeves. The bridegroom's mother wore a mauve colored gown fashioned with spaghetti straps and fully crystal pleated skirt with nylon chiffon capelet. They both wore corsages of rosebuds. The grandmothers wore carnation corsages.

For traveling, the bride wore a casual sleeveless summer dress of black and white with white shawl. After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will make their home in Parkton.

The bride is a graduate of Sandhills Community College and the bridegroom is a senior at N.C. State University.

hosted the rehearsal dinner on Saturday evening at the bridegroom's home.

Dinner was served pig picking style.

LUNCHEON

The bride was entertained at a luncheon on May 24th at the home of her sister, Mrs. Dennis Gartrell.

Those attending were the bride's mother and grandmother, the groom's mother and grandmother, and her wedding attendants. Decorations were in rainbow colors, the bride's chosen colors for the wedding.

A gift of china was presented to the bride.

RECEPTION

Mrs. Johnny Armstrong and Mrs. Robert Lawing were hostesses for the reception in the church Fellowship Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Amos Grant greeted guests and goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Z.V. Sanders, Jr.

Mrs. John N. McCormic poured punch, and Mrs. Wayne Worman served cake. Mrs. W.C. Gainey kept the bridal registry.

REHEARSAL DINNER

The family of the bridegroom

BRIDAL SHOWER

Misses Debbie Armstrong and Charlene Averitt were hostesses for a miscellaneous bridal shower on May 16 at the Parkton Presbyterian Church Fellowship Hall at 7:30 p.m.

A corsage of daisies was presented to the bride by the hostesses and the mothers, with a corsage of pink carnations.

Refreshments of punch, nuts, sausage balls, cheese waters, mints, and cake squares were served.

Wood-Rognerud Wedding Held

Mary Elizabeth Rognerud and Rocky Lewis Wood, both of Winston-Salem, were married on May 23 in the morning at eleven o'clock in Center Grove Baptist Church, Winston-Salem. The Rev. Ronald Ryan officiated at the double ring ceremony. Music was furnished by guitarist, Mr. Lee Terry.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert E. Rognerud of Winston-Salem. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Wood of Rockfish.

The bride wore a formal long length gown of cream colored with long lace sleeves. She wore baby's breath in her hair and carried a bouquet of summer arrangements of pink, yellow and white.

Mrs. Bret Terry of Winston-Salem was matron of honor. She wore a pink pleated formal gown with sheer shawl and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Bret Terry served as best man.

The bride is a 1977 graduate of West Forsyth Senior High School and attended Wingate College.

The groom is a 1977 graduate of Hoke High and attended Wingate College. He is presently employed as assistant manager of Wendy's in Winston-Salem.

After a wedding trip to the S.C. coast, the couple will be at home in Winston-Salem.

Following the wedding, later in the evening a surprise reception was held at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wood.

The dining table was covered with a wedding tablecloth and the center held an arrangement of yellow roses. Each end of the table held a single yellow candle with greenery. The two-tiered wedding cake, topped with bride and groom was decorated in yellow, white and green. Guests were greeted by Mrs. Oscar Wood, aunt of the groom, and Younger Wood, brother of the groom. Punch was poured by Miss Sandra Wood and wedding cake was served by Miss Gathael Wood, sisters of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Rocky Lewis Wood

DeVane's Department Store

Raeford, N.C.
SAT., MAY 31st
 10:00 - 5:00

ONLY
$3.00
 DEPOSIT
 $15.99 Bal.
 Plus Tax

SEE POSTERS ON DISPLAY FOR DETAILS

Luncheon Fetes Miss Corbett, June Bride-elect

A luncheon honoring Miss Denise Corbett, June 8th bride-elect of Peter Sawyer, was held on Saturday, May 24, at the home of Mrs. Julius Jordan. Other hostesses were Mrs. Truman Austin, Mrs. Willis Hood, Miss Ellen Currie, Mrs. June Johnson, and Mrs. Faye Jordan.

The hostesses presented the honoree with a corsage of daisies and with gifts of appliances.

Punch was served from the dining room as guests arrived. Places were laid for sixteen at four small tables which were each centered with a small container of roses. A lovely arrangement of multi-colored roses and Queen Anne's lace graced the dining room table. The home was beautifully decorated throughout with arrangements of roses and Queen Anne's lace.

