

Bucks To Play Red-White Game Sat

A Red-and-White intersquad scrimmage will be held for the Hoke County High School varsity football squad on Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in the Hoke High stadium.

There will be no admission charge.

Honorary coaches have been named for the Saturday night contest: County Schools Supt. Raz Autry for the Red team, and Dr. Riley Jordan, chairman of the Hoke County Board of Education for the white.

Glenn Draughon, Hoke High's new head coach, started workouts for the 1980 season on August 1. From then through Friday, he had been holding evening sessions, 6-8 o'clock, but on Monday stepped up the practices to twice daily, 6:30-8 a.m. and 6-8 p.m.

The Bucks have a scrimmage scheduled for August 22 at 7:30 p.m. in the Hoke Stadium with Union Pines of Moore County. Spectators will be charged $1 each for admission.

RAISING MONEY, BEATING HEAT -- Tammy Hollingsworth, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Hollingsworth, was using this way, very proper for the hot day, to help raise money for the planned Gospel Choir Pageant of Rockfish Grove Free Will Baptist Church. She was offering homemade, ice-cold lemonade for 40 cents for a big cup and 25 cents for a smaller one Friday afternoon on West Elwood Avenue. Business hadn't been good up to then but she was expecting it to get much better after a local plant's shifts changed later in the afternoon. Her mother is assistant pastor of the church and president of the choir. Her father is a deacon of the church helps her mother with the choir. (Staff photo by Bill Lindau)
