

96 Compete In Kiwanis Golf Tournament

Ninety-six golfers competed last weekend in seven flights in the Raeford Kiwanis Club's First Annual Golf Tournament. It was played on the Arabia Golf Club course.

The proceeds from the $25 entry fee for each player were donated to the club's Scholarship fund and other charities.

Kiwanis Club President William Wood said the response was very good and the club was pleased with the results.

The pictures show Wood and fellow Raeford Kiwanian Bill Lancaster presenting the trophies to the two members of each of the winning and runnerup teams of each flight. Wood appears in all the photos showing three men, and Lancaster and Wood are presenting trophies in separate pictures to the members of the runnerup trophy in the fifth flight to Jerry Long. Long's partner was Gene Webb.

Not shown also are sixth flight's winning team of Berryhill and McHail, and the seventh flight's runnerup team of Sessoms and Snipes.

It was a Captain's Choice style tournament. Each two-man team qualified on Saturday for placement in a flight on Sunday.

The team low-ball score made on both days was combined to make the final team score.

Trophies and prizes also were given to the golfer hitting balls closest to the pins on the par-three holes.

Potts Heads NCSU Hoke Drive

Alvin L. Potts of Raeford has been appointed Hoke County chairman of North Carolina State University Alumni Association's 1980-81 Loyalty Fund Campaign to raise over $400,000.

Potts is a 1957 graduate of N.C. State's School of Textiles.

"There are 65 N.C. State alumni in Hoke County," he said, "and we're counting on them to help sustain and expand our first true merit scholarship program. Volunteers will be calling the alumni in the county November 10 to November 25 asking for their support."
