

NEW CEILING—An office of the clerk of Hoke County Superior Court has a new ceiling. It replaces the old one whose section fell July 9. It was the part directly above the painting of the hounds. The section also was just behind the desk of Deputy Clerk Evelyn McLeod, and was roughly the size of two of the new panels.

Sunday School Lesson

Background Scripture:
Matthew 1:18 through 2:23.

Devotional Reading:
Isaiah 9:2-7

Eight hundred years before the birth of Jesus of Nazareth occurred an event in Judah that the writer of Matthew would later view as a revelation of Jesus the Messiah. Ahaz was on the throne of Judah and Isaiah was God's prophet. The tiny kingdom was once again in danger of annihilation by its enemies Syria and Ephraim. (Israel), and Ahaz and his people were struck with terror: "...his heart and the heart of his people shook as the trees of the forest shake before the wind" (Isaiah 7:2).

So God sent Isaiah to Ahaz to reassure him and his people that they would be saved. But apparently King Ahaz was not comforted by the prophet's words, so Isaiah says to him: "Ask a sign of the Lord your God; let it be as deep as Sheol or as high as heaven" (Isaiah 7:10). But Ahaz, whose faith had withered, refused to do so.

Thus, Isaiah proclaimed, since Ahaz would not designate a sign, God himself would give one to him: "Behold, a young woman shall conceive and bear a son, and you shall call his name Immanuel" (7:14). Before the child should reach maturity, the Lord would defeat Judah's enemies, and because Ahaz's lack of faith, an even greater ordeal would befall him and his nation. Those who believed in God's sign would be saved, while those who doubted would suffer greatly.

We don't know who was the "young woman" who conceived and bore a son. Some believe it was one of Ahaz's wives, while others think it may have been the wife of the prophet. At any rate, it was a young woman known to both the prophet and the king and the conception and birth of a child would be under circumstances that would make the event discernible as a sign of those with faith.

Even more significant however, would be the child's name: Emmanuel, meaning "God is with us." This was the message God was bringing his people through Isaiah: God is with you! Therefore, do not be afraid. Trust in God! The child would symbolize God's assurance that he would save his people if they trusted in him.

Eight centuries later the people of the newly-born church saw the birth of Jesus as the ultimate fulfillment of this event. As the birth of that unknown 8th century BC child was a sign and challenge to Judah, so the birth of Jesus was a sign and challenge to the whole world that God was fulfilling his promises of old.

To the people of Judah the name Emmanuel was a reminder that God would be with them in their national struggle. To Christians, however, the name Emmanuel is even more meaningful, for, in this child, Jesus, God was and continues to be present to all who in faith receive him.
