Weidner-McArthur Wedding Vows Solemnized At Pittman Grove

The marriage of Miss Rhonda Dale McArthur of Raeford and James F. Weidner of Fort Bragg was solemnized on Sunday, March 8, at 3:00 p.m. in the Pittman Grove Baptist Church at Route 2, Raeford. The Rev. Mack Musselwhite officiated for the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Wanda Godwin, pianist, provided nuptial music.

The bride is the daughter of Morton and Lena McArthur of Route 1, Raeford. The bridegroom's parents are Jack Weidner of Yuma, Arizona, and Mrs. R.L. Thews of Tucson, Arizona.

The church was decorated with blue and white gladioli and chrysanthemums, babies' breath, with fern balls furnishing backdrops for the arrangements. Two special candelabra and two branched candelabra with lighted white tapers further enhanced the setting. Blue satin pewmarkers were used to mark family pews.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white slipper satin with fitted lace sleeves and matching lace ruffles at the neckline and yoke. The skirt extended into a cathedral-length train as did her Spanish mantilla. The mantilla of silk illusion and Spanish lace was made in Mexico and was given to the bride by the bridegroom's mother. Her bouquet consisted of Bridal roses, babies' breath, blue net puffs, and wedding lace with streamers. A detachable glabella corsage centered the bouquet.

Mrs. Diane Melton served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Rebecca Baker, sister of the bride, Raeford; Mrs. Tina Lynch, cousin of the bride, Candor; and Miss Donna McArthur, cousin of the bride, Fairmont.

The attendants wore pale baby blue gowns of Qiana with fitted high waistlines, scooped necklines, and full bell skirts extending to the floor with a white satin ribbon belt. The bridesmaids carried a single large white mum with blue streamers and the honor attendant carried two large mums with white streamers.

Miss Rene McArthur, sister of the bride, of Raeford was flower-girl. She wore a long-sleeved blue dress similar to that of the bridesmaids with a white lace collar.

Ringbearer was Bobby Wayne McArthur, brother of the bride. He wore a navy suit and carried a pillow of blue lace.

George Baker served as best man. Ushers were Burl Hardy, Aberdeen, uncle of the bride; Robert Humphrey, Shannon, cousin of the bride; and Bruce Swann, Raeford.

The mother of the bride wore a fitted high-waisted dress of jade green knit featuring a yoke and sleeves made of matching jade lace.

After a wedding trip to Asheville, the couple will reside at Route 1, Aberdeen.

The bride graduated from Hoke High School and is employed by Blue Bell, Inc., of Aberdeen.

The bridegroom attended school in Tucson, Arizona, and is presently stationed with the Special Forces in Fort Bragg.

RECEPTION

Mr. and Mrs. David E. Humphrey, Sr., of Shannon hosted the reception immediately following the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church.

Miss Terri Clark greeted guests and attended the bridal registry. Mrs. Ingrid Madden and Miss Leslie Madden served cake. Punch was served by Mrs. Iola Smith. The three-tiered wedding cake was made and decorated by Mrs. Humphrey and Mrs. Doris McArthur, aunts of the bride.

REHEARSAL DINNER

A rehearsal dinner was given on Saturday evening, March 7, by Mr. and Mrs. David E. Humphrey, Sr., of Shannon and Mr. and Mrs. Larry O. McArthur of Fairmont at the Humphrey home.

An arrangement of spring flowers centered the buffet table, and a matching candelabra arrangement with yellow tapers accented the dining table.

SHOWERS

The W.M.U. of the church at Pittman Grove Baptist Church hosted a Bridal Shower for Dale February 20th at the church fellowship hall. Everyone of the church and friends and relatives of the bride were invited. Dale received many nice and useful gifts and the W.M.U. presented her with an electric can opener. She was presented a beautiful corsage for the occasion by the W.M.U. Everyone had an enjoyable time of fellowship and food as well as the sharing of the gifts.

Mrs. James F. Weidner

The ACTEENS and friends of the bride hosted a Lingerie Shower for Dale at the home of Mrs. Becky Baker, sister of the bride, February 21st. Dale received several pieces of lingerie as well as some other items and everyone had a good time. Among the acteens participating in the shower were Miss Karen Jackson, Miss Terri Clark, Miss Lisa Madden, Miss Christy Batton, Mrs. Myrtle Swann and others.

Mrs. McFadyen Dinner Honoree

Mrs. Frank McFadyen, recent bride, was honoree at a dinner party at the home of Mrs. John K. McNeill, Jr., North Fulton Street, on Tuesday evening of last week by members of her bridge club.

A buffet was served from the dining table, covered with a white linen tablecloth and centered with an arrangement of jonquils and spirea.

Guests were seated at small tables in the living room. Camellias centered each table, and other arrangements adorned tables in the living room and hall.

Co-hostesses were Miss Ellen Currie, Mrs. June Johnson, Mrs. A.R. Fitzsimons, Mrs. Sam Morris, Mrs. Irvin Hubbard, Mrs. Faye Jordan and Mrs. Carlton Niven.

After dinner bridge was played. Mrs. Fitzsimons was the recipient of the high score prize.

UDC Meets

"When We Flew the First Confederate Flag" was the subject at the Raeford United Daughters of the Confederacy Chapter's March meeting held at the Hoke County Library. The flag was designed by Major Smith of Franklin County and was first raised at Louisburg.

Mrs. Aline Wright was program leader, and Mrs. Ethel Monroe led the opening prayer. The president, Mrs. Lillian Wood, presided and led the ritual, allegiance, and salutes to the flags.

Plans were made for the general convention to be held in Winston-Salem on October 31-November 6. The local chapter will furnish door prizes, favors, and items for prizes.

It was voted to have the next meeting on April 3 so that all could attend the district meeting on April 10 in Aberdeen. The poem of the month, "Enlisted Today" was read by Miss Isabel McFadyen. An auction sale for the benefit of the treasury was held. The hostesses, Mrs. Treva Koonce and Mrs. Marie Blue Lee, served refreshments carrying out a spring motif during the social hour.

Personal

Mrs. Lois Crumpler and children, Kim and Josh had lunch with Mrs. Wallace McLean on Saturday.
