4-H Corner

We have ordered candy to sell so we can replenish our funds.

A special meeting will be called when the candy arrives so we can distribute it to all 4-H members. We look forward to a sell-out.

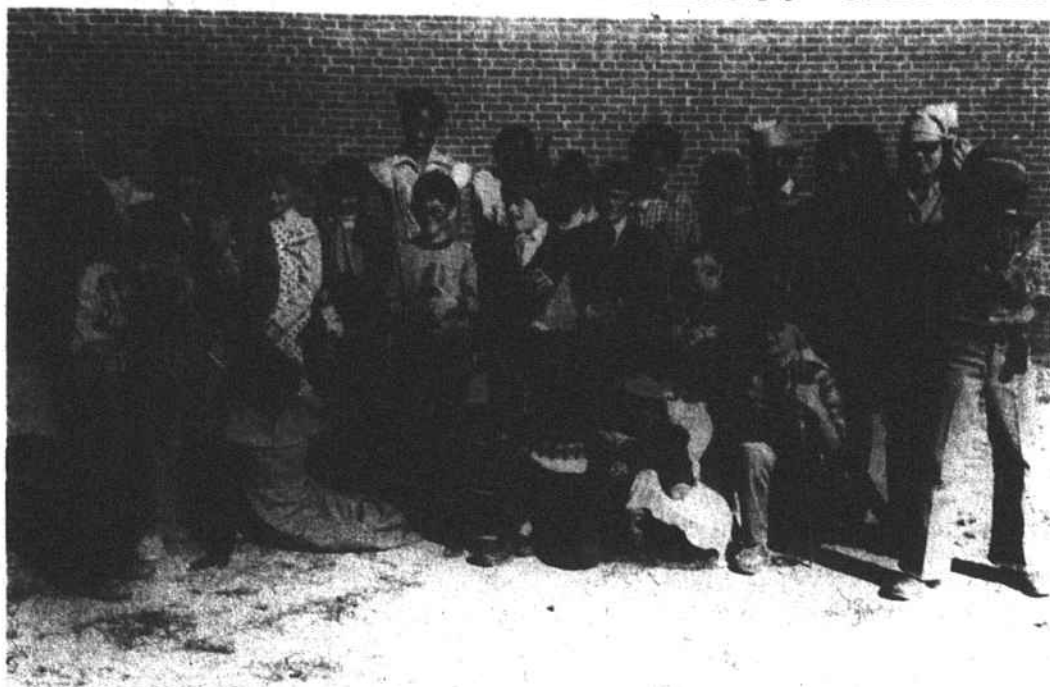

Record books are due not later than November 30! I know Thanksgiving week is a busy one but don't neglect to complete your records, write a story with each record, and get it to Alice before deadline.

I had an interesting trip to Kentucky and will tell you about it later. The orchid corsage I received from Hoke County 4-Hers was greatly appreciated, and definitely one of the highlights of my trip.

Have a happy Thanksgiving season and call if you need help with your records: Sharon - 875-4733 or Alice Lancaster - 2162.

BOOK CHARACTERS-- Mrs. Darlene Clark's Fourth Grade students are shown here in the costumes they chose to illustrate characters in books. The book-character contest was held in observance of Book Week last week. In front, are the students judged to have the best three costumes -- L-R, Redrick Graham, as "John Henry," placed second; Ronda Chappelle was third, with her "Goldilocks," holding one of the three bears; and Brian Allen as Israel Hands in "Treasure Island," was the winner. The boys in the business suits are Kevin Booker (left) as President Ronald Reagan, and Scott Edwards, former President Richard Nixon. [Staff photo].

Here's the Second Grade winner, done by Mrs. Patterson's students.

The best in the Fourth Grade was this one, in the opinions of the judges. It is the work of Mrs. Darlene Clark's boys and girls.
