

Hoke Cagers Defeat 71st In 3

All three Hoke High basketball squads won their games December 1 with 71st High's teams on the Hoke court.

The Boys' varsity took a 55-52 decision, the Hoke girls won 71-48, and the Junior Varsity won 59-49.

Hoke plays South View Friday in the Hoke gym.

In last week's varsity game, Greg Hollingsworth scored 26 points for the winners, the highest individual total of the contest.

Seventy-First took a one-point lead just short of two minutes from the end after trailing by 10 points in the third period. But Hoke's Eldred Blue scored two points on free throws, then Preston Moore did the same, the latter with 20 seconds left.

Seventy-First's athletes took four shots at the basket in attempts to score field goals before time ran out but none went in.

The win was Hoke's second in the season's first three games.

The girls' game's leading scorer was Barnes with 24 points for Hoke. The winners were ahead at halftime when the score was 31-23 and outscored Seventy-First in every period.

The Hoke JV's efforts brought the second consecutive win of the season following the opening loss. The 71st JVs had the game's leading individual scorer, Virgil Snow with 29 points. The winners were led by James McQueen with 16.

Upchurch Girls Down Hillcrest

The Lady Eagles struggled in their opening contest against Hillcrest of Fayetteville but managed a 32-20 decision, December 1.

The Eagles took a 6-4 lead in the first quarter and played even the second quarter, taking a 2-point lead at half time, 12-10.

Plagued with first-game jitters and poor passing, the Lady Eagles did better the second half: 10-4 in the third quarter and 10-6 in the fourth.

The Eagles were lead by T.

Hollingsworth and V. Southerland with 11 points each followed by D. Gupton with 6, J. Hunt 2, and T. Kelton with 2 points. Kelton did a fine job rebounding to aid the Eagles' victory.

Hillcrest was lead by B. Griffin with 14 points. Sinclair, Brown and Reese each contributed 2 points each for Hillcrest.
