

McPhaul-Fargis Vows Exchanged In Antioch Church

Nina Marie Fargis of Carthage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Fargis of Long Branch, New Jersey, and John Archibald McPhaul III, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Archibald McPhaul of 245 Country Club Circle, Southern Pines, were married in a 4 p.m. ceremony on Saturday Dec. 19.

The Rev. Charles C. Ansley officiated at the ceremony which was held at Antioch Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Joseph Fargis gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Deborah Richardson of Aberdeen served as organist. Pre-nuptial music included songs performed by vocalist Anthony McMillan. He was also accompanied by Richard Peterson on guitar and Robert Hershey on violin.

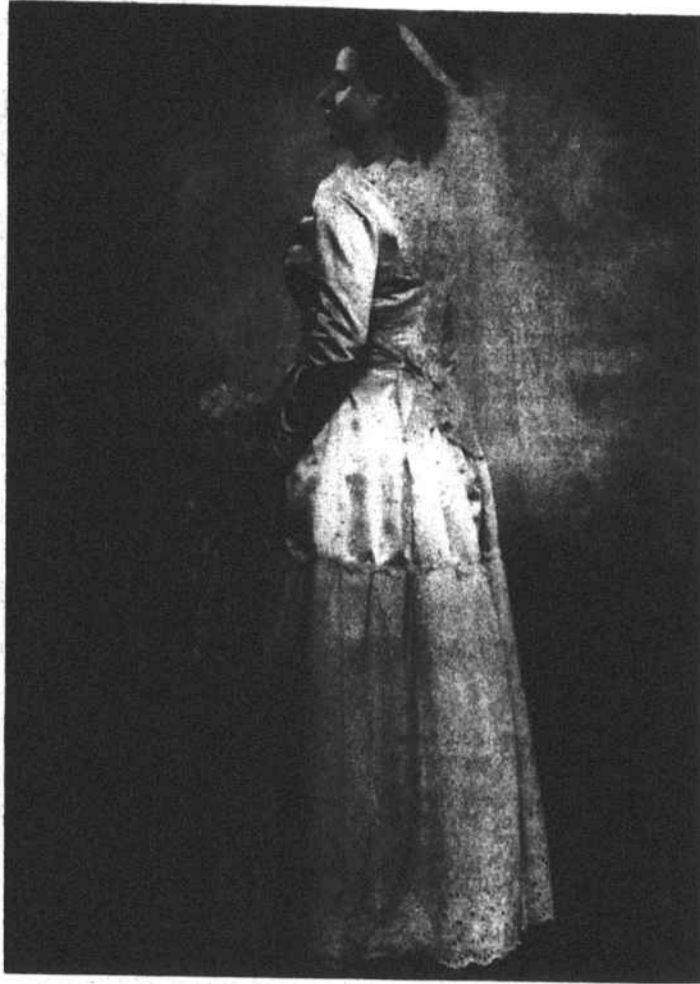

The bride wore a dress of antique satin with heirloom crochet waistband, which was complemented by heirloom embroidered eyelet yoke and overskirt. Her veil was a waist length meline attached to a beaded coronet adorned with Christmas holly. The bride carried an arm bouquet of rubrum lillies and heather.

Mrs. Robert Kuhn of Fairfax, Va., attended her sister as matron of honor. She wore an ecru floor length gown with inset lace banding and carried an arm bouquet of rubrum lillies and heather.

The groom's niece and nephew, Lydia Toon Fleury and Robert Andre Fleury of Wilder, Vermont, attended as flower-girl and ring-bearer.

A reception followed the ceremony in the fellowship hall of Antioch Presbyterian Church.

Following the wedding trip to Williamsburg, Va., the couple will reside in West Jefferson, N.C., where Mr. McPhaul is employed by Farmer's Burley Tobacco Warehouse.

UDC Holds Dec. Meeting

The Raeford Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy held its December meeting at the Hoke County Library. Mrs. Lillian Wood, president, presided and read the UDC prayer for the devotional. The ritual, pledges, and salutes to the flags were led by the president.

Members were asked to remember the former residents of the UDC home and patients at the Veteran's Hospital at Christmas time with cards.

The program, "Captain Sally L. Thompkins," was led by Mrs. Marie Lee. Captain Thompkins was the owner and operator of a Confederate hospital in Richmond during the war. The poem of the month, "Dreaming in the Trenches," was read by Miss Isabel McFadyen.

During the social hour, refreshments carrying out the holiday theme were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Annie Thelma Harmon and Mrs. Walta Bostic.

Raeford Junior Woman's Club Ladies Meet

The Raeford Junior Woman's Club met on Dec. 15, at 7:30 at the home of Jane Britt. The Home-Life Department hosted the evening. The house and table were decorated beautifully with a Christmas atmosphere.

Jane Britt, club president, called the meeting to order. The Christmas story was read by Betty Odom. Business of the evening included installation of 9 new members. Joan Balfour, Parliamentarian of District 9, installed the new members using as a theme "a symphony" and how musical pieces work together. Each new member was given a musical ornament by Mrs. Balfour. The new members include Debbie Norton, Kim Hamlet, Connie Davidson, Dante Harp, Lejeana Hammond, Liza Roper, Faye Lippard, Jo Ann Crawford, and Marsha Currin. The club was very proud of these new assets to the club.

Other business included discussion of the fruit cake sales and the successful home tour.

Also discussed was the helping of two needy families. The junior women are providing a wonderful Christmas for 2 families through donations and available funds. It's a great feeling to share with those less fortunate than many of us.

The evening ended with each member exchanging gifts and delicious refreshments being served. Two guests visited Alice Lancaster and Suzanne Balfour. It was a wonderful night.
