Webb-Lea Wedding Nuptials Exchanged In Culdee Church

Miss Fonda Darlene Lea became the bride of David Niven Webb on Saturday, January 9 at 2 p.m. in the Culdee Presbyterian Church in West End. Miss Lea is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Wilson Lea of West End. Mr. Webb is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lee Webb of Raeford. The Rev. Benjamin McCoy of West End officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with two arrangements of yellow spider mums and lavender chrysanthemums.

Seven-branched candelabra holding lighted tapers stood on either side of the altar. Unity candles were placed beside the altar.

Honor pews were marked with candelight bows.

A program of wedding music was presented by organist, Mrs. Larry Richardson. Soloist was Mrs. Leland Strother, who sang "The Wedding Song", "Wedding Prayer", and "Evergreen".

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose a winter white wool suit and carried a cascade of white orchids.

Miss Miriam Bailey of New York City served as maid of honor. She wore a plum wool suit and carried a bouquet of day lilies and lilies-of-the-valley.

Bridesmaids were the sisters-of-the-bride, Miss Robbie Lea and Mrs. Donald Williamson of West End and Miss Anne Von-Cannon of Southern Pines. The bridesmaids wore suits and carried bouquets identical to that of the honor attendant.

Flower girl was Miss Valerie Webb of Fayetteville, niece of the groom. Ringbearers were Steven Lea of West End, nephew of the bride, and Keith Webb of Fayetteville, nephew of the groom.

The bride's book was kept by Miss Allison McCaskill and Miss Anisa McCaskill of Greensboro, nieces of the bride.

Mr. Webb served as his son's best man.

Ushers were Carlton Brock of Aurore, Missouri, friend of the groom, Richard Lea of West End, nephew of the bride, and Eric McInnis of West End.

Honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gullledge of Raeford, special friends of the bride and groom.

Miss Lea received an associate degree of applied science from Sandhills Community College.

Mrs. David N. Webb

Mr. Webb is a graduate of Hoke County High School.

The couple will live in West End.

RECEPTION

The parents of the bride entertained with a Pig Picking at Dock Side in Southern Pines.

CAKE CUTTING

REHEARSAL PARTY

The rehearsal party and cake cutting was held on Friday evening in their Culdee Church Fellowship Hall hosted by the parents of the groom, and assisted by Mr. and Mrs. William Niven and Miss Lori Niven. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gullledge, and Mrs. Keith Johnson of Fayetteville.

Club Honors Mrs. Webb

Mrs. David Webb whose wedding was Jan. 9 was honor guest with bridge club members on Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Walter Coley. Upon arrival, Mrs. Webb was presented a corsage of silk flowers.

After dessert and coffee were served to guests, Mrs. Webb was presented gifts from bridge club members.

Club high scorer was Mrs. Martin Webb and consolation Mrs. Berder Niven. The Bingo winner was Mrs. Earl Gordon.

Other guests were Mrs. Lauchlin Macdonald and Mrs. Eddie Baker.

He is the husband of Faye Rockholt of Raeford and is a 1968 graduate of Hoke County High School. He went into the Army in August 1968. Sgt. and Mrs. Rockholt have two children, sons Dave and Dean. Mrs. Rockholt and the children will be living in Raeford while Rockholt is overseas.

Rockholt is a grandson of the late C.W. "Mr. Rock" Rockholt, Sr.

When he finishes his tour of duty in Korea he will be stationed at Ft. Sill, Okla.

Rockholt currently is serving with the USACC Signal Battalion.

Raeford JWC Meets

The Raeford Junior Woman's Club met on January 18, at 7:30, at the Hoke County Civic Center.

Several of the members refreshed the club with hot chocolate and doughnuts.

Jane Britt, club president, called the meeting to order. Many issues were discussed. Thanks were extended to all the members involved in helping the two needy families during Christmas and also for preparing delicious refreshments for the December meeting.

The club also plans to work the March of Dimes telethon. The club will be answering calls at Dr. Southerland's office in Raeford. This will take place on February 7 through Channel 40.

Another activity that the club has sponsored is a "hot line" from the high school directly to the health department. This line will be set up for teenagers with questions about family planning and other items that concern them. This line should be open shortly.

The club is also checking into the possibility of renting out safety seats for babies, although this will require much study and legal advice.

On March 6, the Junior Women will nominate senior boys and girls for the Sallie Southall Cotten Scholarship. There will be two winners. Each will receive $150.

On February 8, the club plans an orientation for new members at the home of Gwen Booker.

The last order of business concerned the selling of candy during February. All members will be around selling delicious candy, so be watching.

The meeting was adjourned and the refreshments were served.
