

Davis Running Against Dupree

William R. Davis, 39, a Hope Mills lawyer, is running for District Court judge, aiming specifically at Judge Joseph E. Dupree's seat. Dupree is running for reelection.

Davis filed Friday for a 12th Judicial District seat. Davis said he has nothing personal against Dupree but he feels that all judges should be lawyers.

Dupree is the only nonlawyer who is a District Court judge. State law now requires a judge to be a lawyer but Dupree serving since 1966, is exempt from the provision under the grandfather clause. Dupree is a retired State Highway Patrol officer.

IN SONG SERVICE -- The Waymakers Gospel Quartette will present a service in song Sunday at 7 p.m. at Pittman Grove Baptist Church on Rt. 2, Raeford. Everyone is invited to attend.

A pound of coffee makes about 40 cups.
