

Cameron Files For Reelection

W.W. (Bill) Cameron Jr., filed Monday for reelection to the Hoke County Board of Education.
Cameron, a 39-year-old Rt. 3, Raeford, farmer, is running for his second four-year term and is the board's chairman.
He was named chairman in February 1981, by majority vote of the board members to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Dr. Riley Jordan from the board. Jordan was chairman when he left.
Cameron is a native of Hoke County and is a 1961 graduate of Hoke County High School. He graduated in 1965 from the University of Tennessee with a degree of Bachelor of Science in education, then taught school for 11 years, first at Duglin, Ga., High School, then in Etowah, Tenn. From Etowah he returned to Hoke County in 1973, as a Hoke High teacher.

A former University of Tennessee football player, he also coached football at Hoke High for four years. He left his school position in 1977 to farm full time.
Cameron is married to the former Rhenda Pierce, a native of Kingsport, Tenn. Mrs. Cameron is coordinator of special children's programs for the Hoke County School system.
The Camerons have two children: Candace, 10, a J.W. Turlington School student; and Bill III, 6, at J.W. McLaughlin School.
Cameron is active in Raeford Presbyterian Church and is a former deacon of the church. He also is a director of the Hoke County Farm Bureau and also is a member of the Hoke County Farmers Club. Cameron served last year as president of the Five Points Community Watch.

Coley Files For School Board

Walter N. Coley, a 48-year-old pharmacist, filed with the Hoke County Board of Elections Monday for reelection to his second four-year term on the Hoke County Board of Education.
He is a native of Granville County and came to Hoke County in July 1957 to join Hoke Drug Co. in Raeford as a pharmacist. Later he became co-owner as well as pharmacist, selling out last October. Then he joined the Kerr Drug chain as a pharmacist in a Kerr store in Fayetteville.
Coley graduated from Stem High School in Granville County in 1952 and the school of Pharmacy of the University of North Carolina in 1956.
In Hoke County he served on the County Board of Health for 10 years and on the Board of Directors of Southern National Bank for eight years. He also has worked with the Hoke County Chapter of the American Cancer Society.

Coley is an elder of Raeford Presbyterian Church.
He is married to the former Carroll Moore, a native of Pender County. They have four children: Parker, 19, a Sandhills Community College freshman majoring in radiology; Eric, 16, a junior at Hoke County High School; Tom, 14, in the Eighth Grade at Upchurch Junior High School; and Mary 11, in the sixth grade at J.W. Turlington School.
Coley's wife teaches the sixth grade at Turlington. She is a 1955 graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with a degree in education.
The election in 1978 was Coley's first to a public elective office.

Wright Files For School Board

Robert (Bobby) Wright, 40, of Rt. 1, Raeford, filed Monday with the Hoke County Board of Elections as a candidate for election to his first regular four-year term on the County Board of Education.
Wright is serving the unexpired portion of the four-year term of Dr. Riley Jordan, who resigned February 3, 1981. Wright was appointed to replace Jordan by the other members of the school board February 12. The term expires next December.
The election of three candidates to the board is scheduled for the November general election, since the school board elections are nonpartisan.

Wright is a farmer, born and reared in Hoke County. He graduated from Hoke County High School in 1959 and from Campbell University, with a degree of Bachelor of Science in science, in 1963.
Wright is married to the former Shirley Johnson, also a native of Hoke County. They have three children, all sons: Robert A., Jr. 13, an Upchurch Junior High School student; Will, 11, a J.W. Turlington School student; and John, 6, a J.W. McLaughlin School student.
Bobby Wright is a deacon and the Sunday school superintendent of Bethel Presbyterian Church.
The school board membership is his first in public office.

John Mark Wood and Kimberly Dees Wood of Raeford have been named to the Elon College Dean's List for the spring semester.

Lumbley was born July 19, 1926, in Superior, Wis. He retired at Ft. Benning, Ga., after 20 years' service, and moved to Hoke County from Washington, D.C., in 1979.
During his service, he served as an infantryman in Europe in World War II, then in the Korea and Vietnam Wars. Most of his service was with Army Intelligence. In Vietnam, he was with the First Air Cavalry Division, going in when the division and the 173rd Airborne Brigade in 1965 were the first conventional American ground forces groups committed to the war.
Among the decorations he received in service are the Bronze Star, three Army Commendation medals and the Combat Infantryman's Badge.
He received two years of college credit also while in the Army.
Lumbley attends Ephesus Baptist Church, is a member of John Huske Anderson Masonic Lodge in Fayetteville, the Fayetteville York

Rite Bodies, and the Allied Masonic Degrees, and is treasurer of the Order of the Amaranth, and member of the Order of the Eastern Star.
In 1980 he was a Democratic delegate to the Hoke County and District caucuses.
