

Area Incidents

Thieves Get Rifle, Bicycle

The following cases were reported to the Hoke County Sheriff's Department recently.

Someone broke into the home of Odessa McColl on Rt. 3, Raeford, January 27 but apparently was scared off before taking anything away. The intruder or intruders did about $10 to a screen in breaking in.

David Warren, Rt. 3, Raeford, reported January 26 a $50 bicycle was stolen from his yard.

William Keith Gardner, Rt. 4, Raeford, reported January 27 his .22 rifle worth $100 was stolen January 26 or 27 from his pickup truck while it was parked. The thief broke into the vehicle to get the gun.

Raeford Police Chief Leonard Wiggins reported the following.

Inez Stevens, 509 Grant Ave., reported February 1 a $109 bicycle stolen from J.W. Turlington School. The bike was found later that day near the school.

Grover Dukes of Lamont Street reported February 1 someone broke three window panes of his mobile home.

Margaret Roper, 402 W. Fifth Ave., reported someone entered her apartment through an upstairs window and stole jewelry, a radio and a telephone valued at a total of $756.

A 1963 Chevrolet Impala valued at $2,000 and owned by James Tracy Long was reported January 30 stolen from 207 Adams St. It was found February 1 in woods on N.C. 211 West with its tires and wheels gone.

Macks Stores reported a shoplifter January 31. Garcia Rodriguez, Rt. 1, Raeford, was arrested and charged with stealing a package of socks and a pair of gloves worth $16.99 in all.

Someone broke into H&R Block in the Raleigh Apartments Building, it was reported January 29, and stole two calculators worth a total of $140, a total of $42 in checks, and $100 in cash.

The A&P reported January 27 a juvenile shoplifter took a $1 box of raisins. The juvenile was apprehended and turned over to juvenile authorities.

Wesley Miller Running For Board

Wesley G. Miller, a Democrat, filed last week as a candidate for election as a Hoke County commissioner.

He became the eighth to enter the contests for the three seats on the board of county commissioners up for election this year. All are Democrats and will run for the party's three nominations in the May 4 primary.

Miller lives in Quewhiffle Township with his wife, the former Joy D. Lucas of Quewhiffle Township, and their children, Charissa, 14, a student at Upchurch Junior High School, and Eric, 11, a J.W. Turlington School student.

Miller is a graduate of Hato Rey High School in Puerto Rico, and has attended the University of Puerto Rico in San Juan. He is a native of Cincinnati, Ohio, and has lived in Hoke County the past 14 of the 15 years he has been in North Carolina.

During his military service in 1955, he was awarded a Strategic Air Command medal for military preparedness.

Presently he is the owner of an income tax, bookkeeping and insurance service, State-Wide Consultants, with its address at Pinebluff.

Miller is making his second try for county commissioner. He ran in the 1978 Democratic primary and did not advance to the general election, though he made a good showing.
