Rose Parish Considered

Rose Marie Parish, a Hoke County High School senior, has been named for further consideration in the Pogue Scholarship program of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

She was notified of this last week by Charles Long, chairman of the Pogue Scholarship Committee, by letter.

Miss Parish was asked to arrive in Chapel Hill on the afternoon of March 21 and spend the nights of March 21 and 22 as a guest at the Carolina Inn.

Long wrote that she was among the 18 students elected for further consideration from among more than 250 applicants.

Miss Parish's home is on Rt. 1, Red Springs.

DATES TO REMEMBER:

Tonight, March 4, at 7:30 p.m., Mrs. Ellen Willis, extension home economics agent, will conduct a workshop on "Cooking With Honey."

On March 18 at 7 p.m., the Agricultural Extension Service will conduct a program on vegetable gardening. The program is designed for both experienced and inexperienced gardeners. Come and participate in this program.

A garden contest, with judges and prizes, would provide an incentive to improve many of our cultural practices in Hoke County. If you are interested in helping to organize such an effort please come on March 18 and express your interest.

Both meetings will be in the T.B. Lester Building on S. Magnolia Street, Raeford.

Loblolly pines provide fast-growing field windbreaks, and white pines are ornamental.
