

Area Incidents

Moped, Money Order, Wagon Taken

The following were filed at the Hoke County Sheriff's Department.

Dennis Davis, Rt. 2, Raeford, reported a $250 Moped stolen March 1 from his property.

Wanda Kay Locklear, Rt. 1, Red Springs, Crech's Mobile Home Park, reported her fullblooded black-and-white Dachshund is missing. She said she last saw the dog at 9:30 a.m. March 5. The dog is small and long and has short hair.

A truck ran into the side of the Hide-A-Way Club February 28. The accident did about $1,000 to the building and about $500 to the truck.

During the weekend of March 5, someone took the kitchen and bathroom faucets and left the water running in a vacant house owned by the Avery Connell Agency near the Scurlock School area. A repairman said that when he entered the house he found four inches of water on the floor. A back door had been kicked in.

Lola Mae Jones, 434 Robert Ave., reported a $97 money order was taken from her mail box between March 1 and March 5. A warrant charging possession of stolen goods was issued against a suspect.

Raeford Police Chief Leonard Wiggins reported the following received by his department.

George McGuire reported Tuesday a small wagon valued at $30 was taken from his back yard at 403 Dickson St.

Ruth McLean Shaw reported she purchased a money order January 25 for $15.41 at the A&P and lost it there the same day. She said someone found and cashed it.

Raeford Ptl. George Baker, patrolling on Sunday, found a window off its track and a door unlocked at Hoke County High School. Nothing has been reported missing.

Magline Andrews, 413 W. Sixth Ave., reported Tuesday her pistol was taken from her home. Patrick Fellows, 501 Grand Ave., Raeford, was charged with larceny of the pistol, a .22 valued at $50, and with carrying a concealed weapon.
