Mr. And Mrs. Tyner Celebrate Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Tyner

Mr. & Mrs. Robert L. Tyner were honored Saturday night with a surprise party celebrating their 25th Wedding Anniversary at the Church of God Fellowship Hall. The couple was taken out to eat by their daughters and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Thompkins and Mr. and Mrs. Randy Quick and children. The party was also given by their children including their son, Barry Tyner. Upon arrival the couple was greeted by guests and presented a corsage and boutonniere. After greeting the couple refreshments of nuts, cake, finger sandwiches, potato chips, dip, crackers and punch were served. Cake was served by Lisa Caulder, niece of the couple, and punch was poured by Mrs. Harrison Quick. The guest register was kept by Mrs. John E. Caulder, mother of Mrs. Tyner.

The couple received many nice gifts of silver and other things. Approximately 35 guests attended.

Mr. And Mrs. Baker Honored On Fortieth Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Baker

A reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. David Baker on their fortieth wedding anniversary was given by their children on Sunday, April 18, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Huff on E. Donaldson Avenue. Hosting the occasion were Mr.

and Mrs. Eddie Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker of Cherryville, and Mr. and Mrs. Huff.

Guests dropped in between the hours of 3:00 and 4:30. Refreshments were served from the dining room table which was decorated with an arrangement of daisies and carnations.

The Baker's grandchildren assisted in serving. Mrs. Baker was presented a corsage of red carnations, and the honored couple were each presented a watch by their children. Out of town guests included members of the Hardister family of Siler City.

Public Affairs Department Holds Meeting

The Public Affairs Department of the Raeford Woman's Club met on Tuesday, April 13 at the home of Mrs. Tom McBryde. Co-hostess was Mrs. J.Q. Chestnutt. Twelve members and two prospective members, Mrs. Clarence Kinlaw, and Mrs. Clara Constantine were present.

The program "Crime Prevention Awareness" was presented by Miss Alice Lancaster, Miss Kim Hawkins, and Miss Amy Parsons. Miss Lancaster stated that 40 million crimes are committed each year and that they affect the quality of life of every citizen. As a result, citizens must be aware of the ways they can help prevent crime.

Misses Parsons and Hawkins showed members ways they can prevent car theft, burglary, rape, robbery and purse snatching.

In its business session, the department elected Mrs. Louise Koonce as 1982-83 treasurer and Miss Jean Hodgin, 1982-83 vice chairman. Mrs. Rena Smith was remembered with a memorial to the American Cancer Society. Plans were made for a Membership Tea to be held on Saturday, April 24.

Hostesses served delicious refreshments of coffee and igeolos.
