White - Gardner Wedding Vows Spoken In Lumberton Church

Miss Jennifer Susan Gardner became the bride of James Fisher White on Saturday, May 8, in a 12:00 noon ceremony held at the First Baptist Church in Lumberton. Dr. Russell T. Cherry and the Rev. Gary Mull officiated for the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sherrin Gardner of Lumberton and the granddaughter of J.M. McGougan of Lumber Bridge and the late Mrs. McGougan.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Franklin White of Hudson, Ohio.

A program of wedding music was provided by Mrs. John Reissner, organist, and Dr. Robert Romine, trumpeter.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of organza, Alencon lace and seed pearls, fashioned with a scooped neckline, long tapered sheer sleeves with lace and pearl appliques and covered buttons, raised waistline and bodice overlaid with lace and pearls. The slightly flared skirt, accented with lace and pearl appliques, was edged in matching lace and extended into a cathedral train. Her cathedral-length veil of illusion, edged in matching lace, fell from a Camelot cap of lace and pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. John Charles Sowers served as her sister's matron of honor. She wore a formal dress of Shamrock Green linen. A removable balero jacket piped in white linen covered the spaghetti-strapped bodice. The natural waistline was accented with a white string belt. She carried a bouquet of mixed spring flowers.

Bridesmaids, whose attire was like that of the honor attendant, were Miss Elizabeth Ward Rogers of Atlanta, Georgia, Miss Cathy Lynn Lewis of Durham, Miss Mary Leslie Bennett of Rockingham, Mrs. Starkey Sharp V of Winston-Salem, Mrs. Steven Rick Alexander of Laurinburg, and Mrs. Preston Emmett Corbett of Winston-Salem.

The wedding ring: a loving tradition.

Wedding rings have been around almost as long as weddings themselves. The use of the wedding ring was first recorded in ancient Egypt. It was worn on the third finger of the left hand because that finger was believed to be connected by an artery to the heart. During the late Roman Empire, a young maiden would receive a gold engagement ring. The ring symbolized an everlasting love that would never tarnish, just like the metal from which it was made. In 1554, Queen Mary chose a "plain hoop of gold" for her marriage to Philip of Spain, establishing the prestige of the simple gold wedding band. At that time, the wedding ring was worn on the third finger of the right hand in some cultures. And during the reign of Henry VIII, it was fashionable to wear a wedding ring on the thumb!

Today, rings are involved in millions of American weddings every year. And most of those rings are real karat gold. After all—

Nothing else feels like real gold.
Nothing else makes any moment so precious.
