

Special Olympics

Claudine Jones of J.W. Turlington School receiving her gold medal from George Maynor. She won her potato race. Maynor is a former Hoke High and East Carolina University basketball star. He graduated from Hoke in 1975 and from ECU in 1980.

SOME AWARD WINNERS -- L-R, Martin Evans, Adam Ransom and Marvin Evans [Martin's brother] were among the award winners in Thursday's Special Olympics. Martin Evans placed first in a 50-yard dash and second in a 220-yard dash. Ransom won a 50 and a 220, and Marvin Evans won a 220 and a running long jump. They were on an Upchurch Junior High School team in the meet.

One of the three-legged races is underway.

Heading for the finish line in a 220 dash.

One of the potato races underway. The trick is to cover the distance faster than anybody else without dropping the potato.

Lunch break at the Special Olympics.

Area Incidents

Hoke Man Charged With Rape

A Hoke County man was being held under $50,000 bond Tuesday on a charge of first-degree rape in a sexual attack on his 6-year-old daughter, the Sheriff's Department reported.

The defendant was identified as Bobby Louis Green, 24, of Rt. 2, Box 496, Raeford. Lisenby Trailer Park.

The Sheriff's Department received a call May 11 from the Fayetteville Police Department saying the child was at Cape Fear Valley Hospital.

Sheriff's deputies quoted the child as saying her father had committed a sexual act. The report says Green was in custody outside the hospital and was taken to the Hoke County Jail by Hoke officers.

The report says the child had to undergo surgery for the injury but had returned home since then.

Her mother, Mrs. Dail Green, was quoted as saying she found the child, Samantha, lying on a bed, bleeding.

Other cases reported to the department follow.

Willie Scurlock, Rt. 1, Lumber Bridge, reported May 3 someone broke into his house and stole a television set, a scanner, a CB radio, a chain saw, and a .22 caliber rifle.

Sandra Holcomb of Box 238, Raeford, reported $1,825 worth of personal property stolen by someone who broke into her home May 6. The missing property consists of a microwave oven, a 12-gauge shotgun, a portable color television set, a black-and-white TV set, a stereo and two speakers, a Polaroid camera and a guitar.

Raeford Police Chief Leonard Wiggins reported the following complaints received by police.

The Pantry on East Central Avenue reported a man took a $1.45 bottle of wine from a cooler and started walking out without paying for it. When the clerk called to him, he dropped the bottle and he ran. The bottle broke.

John Wesley McLean reported Sunday someone entered his pool room on South Main Street, broke into a pool table and a juke box and stole $15 in quarters. The thief also stole a $30 jacket from the pool room.

Robert Billinger reported Tuesday someone stole the battery and cable valued at $60 from his car while it was parked at the Hoke County Health Department. He was working at House of Raeford at the time.

College News

Two students from Hoke County received degrees from Wake Forest University May 17. They were among about 1,025 students who graduated during commencement exercises at the university.

They are George McCown King, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. King of 28376 McMillan St., Raeford, and Tony Lee Littrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Littrell of Rt. 1, Red Springs.

King and Littrell graduated from the Babcock Graduate School of Management and received Master of Business Administration degrees.

They did their undergraduate study at UNC-Chapel Hill.

King received the B.A. degree in English and political science.

Blaine Sutton recently was inducted into the Pi Kappa Phi social fraternity at UNC-W and has been elected to the office of secretary for next year. In addition, he was also selected to attend the fraternity's national convention this summer at the University of Virginia.

Blaine, who is an intermediate education major, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sutton.

Six Raeford area residents were among the 322 students who received their bachelor degrees May 8 from Pembroke State University at the university's 42nd annual commencement.

The degrees and their major fields of study:

Bachelor of Science -- Audrey Joanne Bundy, special education and Judith Christine Cothran, elementary education (Grades 4-9).

Bachelor of Arts -- David Randall Allen, political science; Mark L. Madden, sociology; and Teresa Carol Tucker, English education.

Bachelor of Science in Applied Science -- Brenda Kay Gardner, business administration.

Free NOW CHECKING WITH INTEREST at 5 1/4%

|           |      |                      |        |         |
|-----------|------|----------------------|--------|---------|
| CHECK NO. | DATE | TO/FOR               | AMOUNT | BALANCE |
| 437       | 12/1 | Lindal Appliances    | 43.98  | 2617.23 |
| 438       | 12/1 | M'Monroe Meat Market | 17.35  | 43.98   |
|           |      |                      |        | 2573.85 |
|           |      |                      |        | 17.35   |
|           |      |                      |        | 2556.50 |
|           |      |                      |        | 400.00  |
|           |      |                      |        | 2956.50 |
| 439       | 12/4 | Zaffor auto parts    | 278.52 | 2678.98 |
| 440       | 12/6 | Rise's Beauty Salon  | 40.00  | 2638.98 |

Ask us for details

Call 875-5061

- No Service Charge
- No Minimum Balance
- First 200 Checks Free (Wallet Size)
- Overdraft Protection Available

DID YOU KNOW?

- We Make
- Automobile Loans
  - Home Improvements Loans

HERITAGE FEDERAL Savings & Loan Association

113 Campus Ave. Raeford, N.C. & 15 Other Locations