

Chaminade Music Club Celebrates 60th Anniversary

The Chaminade Music Club met the evening of May 11 in celebration of its 60th Anniversary and honoring the Past Presidents.

After a delicious salad and dessert dinner, the president, Mrs. Archie Howard, called the meeting to order with the singing of the Federation Hymn, accompanied by Mrs. Steve Phillips, and followed by the club collect.

During the brief business session, Mrs. Neal McNeil was elected president-elect. The president announced that the club rating sheet sent to the North Carolina Federation of Music Clubs, showed the club had earned 1,654 points for the year and that the club had received the certificate of award for outstanding achievement for its yearbook for 1981-82.

Mrs. Julius Jordan, Historian, read a history of the 60 years of the club.

Sixteen past presidents were honored with small corsages with their names and years they served as president. The presidents were also honored by the club's joining the Past Presidents Assembly of the North Carolina Federation. The money contributed to this assembly will be used for scholarships for young musicians.

Four charter members, Mrs. H.C. McLaughlin, Mrs. Kate Covington, Mrs. R.B. Lewis and Mrs. Hugh Lowe were recognized. Three honorary members, Mrs. H.C. McLaughlin, Mrs. J.W. Walker and Miss Maude Poole, were also recognized.

Miss Maude Poole delighted everyone with her own poem to the past presidents.

Mrs. Hugh Lowe, program leader, announced the following program: Piano Duo, Mrs. J.H. Austin and Mrs. Hugh Lowe; Two choral selections by an ensemble, directed by Miss Maude Poole; a piano solo by Mrs. Jeff Davis. The program concluded with a sing-along directed by several members of the club.

Out of town guests included Mrs. H.C. McLaughlin of Charlotte and Mr. and Mrs. Leon McKay of Dunn.

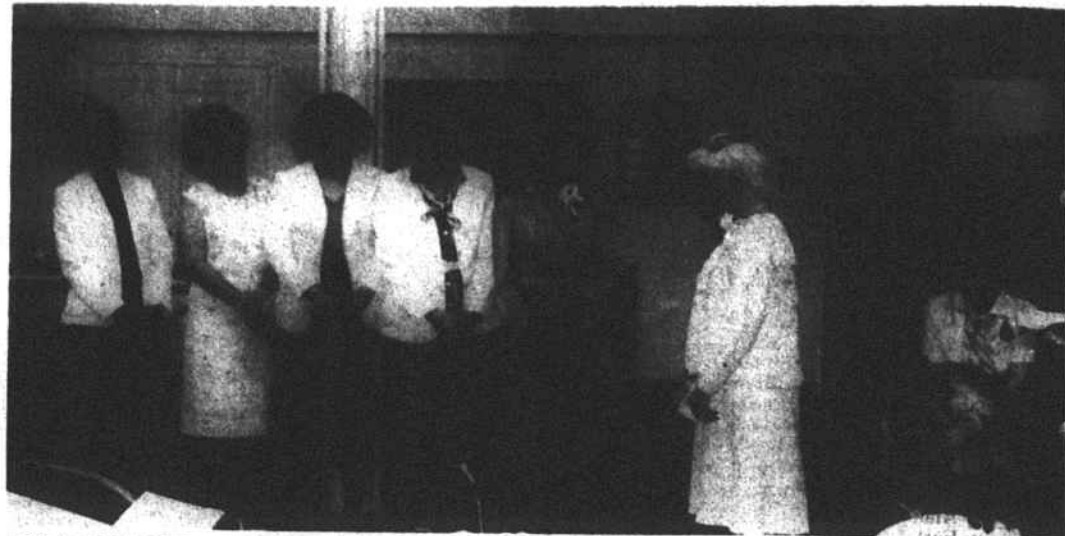

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Robert Calhoun, Mrs. Julius Jordan and Misses Betty Odom and Linda Stanton.
