Barefoot-Scarboro Nuptials Exchanged Here Saturday

Miss Debra Carroll Scarboro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lacy Carroll Scarboro, Jr. of Raeford and Jerry Alan Barefoot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rudolph Barefoot of Raleigh, were united in marriage on Saturday, May 15, at 3:00 p.m., in the Raeford United Methodist Church. The Rev. Arthur Winstead officiated for the double ring ceremony.

The church altar was centered with a floral arrangement with two brass urns and two candelabra on either side. Family pews were marked with hurricane globes accented with greenery and ribbons.

Mrs. Betty Upchurch, organist, and soloists, Miss Amy Hemmens and Larry Upchurch, provided nuptial music. Selections included "Evergreen", "One Hand, One Heart", and "Wedding Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown featuring a chapel-length train of Chiffonette and sculptured Chantilly lace over taffeta. The fitted lace bodice featured a Queen Anne neckline outlined with scalloped lace etched with seed pearls, full length tapered lace sleeves ending with a ruffle over the hand and a natural waistline accented with a satin bow and ribbon streamers. The flared skirt extended into a chapel train. A scalloped Chantilly lace ruffle bordered the hemline of the gown. Her headpiece was a layered waltz-length mantilla of bridal illusion bordered with scalloped Chantilly lace and accented with lace motifs flowing from a Chantilly lace cap etched with seed pearls.

Wanda Miller of Virginia Beach, Va. was maid of honor. She was attired in a kelly green floor-length dress with attached cape and draped neckline in front and back. Her headpiece was a green hat with yellow roses and yellow ribbons extending down the back of the dress. She carried a wicker basket of mixed spring flowers.

Bridesmaids, whose attire was identical to that of the maid of honor were Lisa Crowder of Raeford, Karen Nicholson of Raleigh, and Jill Coughlin of Charleston, S.C.

Mr. Barefoot was his son's best man. Ushers were Bob Barefoot, brother of the bridegroom; Brian Scarboro, brother of the bride; and Ridge Nance of Raleigh.

The mother of the bride wore a light green floor-length dress fashioned with a lace bodice, sleeves, and a natural waistline with tie belt.

The bridegroom's mother wore a yellow floor-length dress of chiffon over taffeta.

For traveling, the bride wore a white accordion pleated skirt with matching waist-length shirt and matching accessories.

Mrs. Jerry Alan Barefoot

After a wedding trip to Atlantic Beach, the couple will make their home in Greenville.

The bride and bridegroom are both students at East Carolina University in Greenville.

RECEPTION

The bridegroom's parents entertained at a reception in the Church Fellowship Hall immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. Betty Skipper of Fayetteville poured punch; and cake was served by Mrs. Catherine Nicholson of Raleigh and Mrs. Margaret McDonald of Greensboro. The bride's book was kept by Miss Susan Townsend. Tea girls were Miss Suzette Skipper of Fayetteville, Miss Meredith McDonald of Greensboro, and Miss Mollie Upchurch of Raeford.

REHEARSAL DINNER

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bridegroom's parents on Friday evening at the Sheraton Inn in Southern Pines for members of the wedding party and out of town guests.

BRIDESMAIDS' LUNCHEON

A bridesmaids' luncheon was held on Friday, May 14, at the home of Mrs. Betty Skipper in Fayetteville. Assisting with the luncheon were Mrs. Lacy Scarboro and Miss Suzette Skipper. Special guests were the bride couple's mothers, Mrs. Carroll Scarboro and Mrs. Earl Barefoot.

PRE-NUPTIAL PARTIES

A floating shower honoring Miss Scarboro was held on Friday evening, May 8, between the hours of 7 and 9 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the Methodist Church.

Baker - Beaver

The Rev. and Mrs. Billy C. Beaver announce the marriage of their daughter, Melissa Leahanne, to Norris C. Baker of Wilmington, on Saturday evening, May 15, 1982 at the home of the bride.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Baker of Wilmington.

The bride was escorted by her father who also officiated the ceremony.

Wedding music was provided by pianist, the Rev. Bev. Tillman and vocalist, Charles Hottel.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home.

The bride attended Campbell University and is now employed with Pine Hurst.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Campbell University. He is employed with Pine Needles.

The couple will make their home in Southern Pines.

Luncheon Fetes Miss Wood

On Saturday, May 15, Miss Martha Ann Wood was honored with a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Joe Upchurch. Other hostesses were Mrs. Harry Turner of Gatesville, and Dr. Ann Godfrey of Raleigh.

Upon arrival, the hostesses presented the honoree with a corsage of daisy pompons.

Places were laid for twelve at individual tables in the living room. A buffet luncheon was served from the dining room table which was covered with a linen and lace table cloth and centered with an arrangement of silk flowers.

Special guest was Mrs. Chester Brown of Goldsboro, mother of the groom-elect.

The hostesses remembered Miss Wood with gifts of china and crystal.

Bridal Luncheon Is Given For Miss Mercer

Miss Linda Mercer, May bride-elect of Ted Davis, was guest of honor on Wednesday, May 12, at a linen luncheon in Lumberton at John's Restaurant. Hostesses were Mrs. Carl Livermore and Mrs. John Polok.

Upon arrival, the honoree was presented a corsage of white Fiji mums and baby's breath. The luncheon tables were centered with arrangements of pink roses and miniature carnations. The bride-elect's place was marked with a pink rose. Covers were laid for fourteen.

Following the lunch of congealed salad, crepes, and strawberry dessert, the honoree opened the shower gifts of beautiful linens. The hostesses' gift was a Quaker lace tablecloth and napkins.

Townsend-Young

Mr. and Mrs. Russell W. Townsend of Stedman announce the engagement of their daughter, Donna Ann, to Roland Dale Young Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland D. Young of Fayetteville.

A June 20th wedding is planned at the New Hope Baptist Church.

The bride-elect is a senior at Cape Fear Senior High School.

The bridegroom-elect is a graduate of Seventy-First High School and is presently attending Fayetteville Technical Institute. He is employed at Burlington Industries in Raeford as a machinist.

UDC Holds May Meeting

The Raeford chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met on May 14 at the home of Miss Josephine Hall. Mrs. Marianna McLean, vice-president, presided and led the ritual, pledge of allegiance, and salutes to the flags.

Miss Hall reported that the cemetery committee had found over eighty cemeteries in the county and that these would be located on maps and a copy sent to the State Archives. Mrs. McLean reported on the District meeting held in Dunn and that the Raeford chapter's yearbook won first place. Miss Sarah Lytch urged everyone with written family histories to give a copy to the local library. Mrs. Mary McNeill urged everyone to keep the scrapbook in mind by contributing materials, articles, pictures and support. A committee was appointed to make plans for the June meeting which will be a luncheon.

An account of the life of General Ashby was read by Mrs. Mary McNeill. The poem of the month, "Lines On A Confederate Note" was read by Miss Isabel McFadyen.

During the social hour, refreshments were served by the hostesses, Miss Hall, Mrs. Janie Monroe, and Mrs. Ethel Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gatlin have returned from a 10 day visit in Long Beach, Calif. where they visited Mrs. Gatlin's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Riddle and Mrs. Gatlin's brother, Clinton Ross, and family. While in Calif. they spent one day and night with Dr. and Mrs. Tom Shapiro in Palm Springs, Calif. Local residents will remember Mrs. Shapiro as Mary Roberts, daughter of Mrs. Eloise Roberts of Harris Ave., Raeford.

Shower Honors Miss Lavinier

Miss Barbara Lavinier, bride elect of David Currie was honored May 15 with a floating bridal shower.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Cindy Currie, Mrs. Althenia Hawkins and Mrs. Myrtle Currie. It was held at Five Points United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall.
