

Awards, Gifts Given At Hoke Senior Dinner

Hoke County High School's 1982 Senior Dinner was held Thursday night, bringing teachers and faculty together with the graduating students and the members of the County Board of Education and County Schools Supt. Raz Autry.

Awards were presented to the outstanding students who won them, and the students gave teachers, Principal Dr. Lenwood Simpson and Senior Class Counselor Eleanor Gentry gifts in appreciation of the help they have given the students.

Senior members of the school's Chorus and Chorale sang, and Dr. Simpson gave the address. Class President Terence P. Malloy spoke for the graduating seniors. Pam Currie was mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. Gentry presented the awards to the winning students.
