by Polly Barnard

Bible School begins at Pittman Grove Baptist Church Monday June 21st from 9:00 to 12:00 o'clock and will continue through Friday June 25th.

Having lunch with Mrs. A.W. Wood, Sr. one day last week was her granddaughter, Miss Beth Wood, her daughter, Mrs. Douglas Monroe and son, Marion Wood of Charlotte.

Miss Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.W. Wood, Jr. of Raeford recently returned from the Cayman Islands where she has served the past two years as a Missionary Journeyman.

Mrs. Henrietta Tanner, Mr. and Mrs. David Gibson, Mrs. Marie Fowler and Mrs. Alice Allen visited Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Garner and family in Carthage the past Saturday.

Correction please: Mrs. Douglas Monroe and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gillis were among the ones who attended the funeral of Mrs. Ruby Wood Pemberton in Greensboro Sunday, May 30th. Their names were inadvertently not listed. Apologies.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wood and son, Timothy visited Mr. Wood's mother, Mrs. Martin L. Wood, Sr. several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Reynolds have returned home after spending several weeks at the beach.

Lawrence Barnard was on the sick list last week but is feeling much better at this report.

Mrs. Marie Fowler and daughter, Cathy Fowler and Mrs. Henrietta Tanner visited Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Powers of Shannon last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell and daughter, Michelle and granddaughter, Autumn have returned from a week camping trip at Parkland Camp Ground at South Myrtle Beach. They had a real nice trip.

There is no change in Mr. Edward Brown's condition. He is still critically ill.

Mrs. Janice Long of Alexandria, Virginia spent the past week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chason.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chason who have been hospitalized recently are both recuperating at home.

Earl Chason and children of Hartsville, South Carolina are spending a two week vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chason.

Mrs. Louise Watson spent several days last week with her sister, Mrs. Wright Parker of Selma.

Mrs. Bernice Bostic and Mrs. Herman Koonce visited their sister, Mrs. Fred Cameron who is a patient in the hospital in Wilmington the past Sunday. They report a slight improvement in her condition.

Mrs. James Sakobie and son, Justen of Hope Mills had dinner with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barnard Saturday evening.

Mrs. Althea Barbour Miller is recuperating at her home in Fayetteville following several weeks in the hospital.

Dougald McDougald is at home again, following recent hospitalization.

The hail and rainstorm last week did severe damage in some places in the area. However, we should be thankful that the damage was not worse.

"There were a whole lot of old people there," four-year-old Amy noted seriously as she described her class's trip to a nursing home. "Then," she added with a proud grin, "we sang to them, and after that they weren't so old anymore." While the children were singing, faces brightened and softened. Lines of worry, depression, and pain were changed into smiles. Amy had seen the cares and burdens of age melt briefly away, and she had known the joy of helping to make it all happen. Perhaps she felt a little like Isaiah felt when he realized that God had chosen him to bring good news to the exiles in Babylon. The poem in Isaiah 61 fairly tingles with the excitement, the happiness, the privilege, of carrying God's message of love and salvation.

Day by day, at various times and places, each of us comes upon opportunities to serve as God's messenger. If we grasp these opportunities and sing out the song

God's messenger. If we grasp these opportunities and sing out the song God has given, then we, too, may know the wonder of seeing someone transformed by the message of love. PRAYER: Thank You, Lord, for the joy of singing a love song to Your people. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
I can sing God's life-renewing song.
