New People At Burlington

Randy E. Johnson reported to work with the management team at the Raeford Plant on June 1 as a manufacturing trainee.
Randy was employed last year in B.I.'s Production Management Summer Intern Program, then returned to Raleigh for his final year and B.S. degree in textile management at N.C. State University.
Randy is a native of Wadesboro and worked summers in textile plants there, attending N.C. State during school terms.
His personal interests include hunting, fishing and photography. He is single and is making his home in Raeford.

Tonya M. Overcash joined the management team at the Raeford Plant on June 7 in the Industrial Engineering Department.
Overcash was born in Greensboro, received her high school diploma from Salem Academy in Winston-Salem, and her B.S. degree in textile management from N.C. State, Raleigh.
She held parttime positions during summers and holidays, one of which was with B.I. at the Central Falls Plant in Asheboro.
Overcash likes sewing, cross stitching and snow skiing.
She is single and lives in Southern Pines.

Charlotte B. Valencia joined the management team at the Raeford Plant on June 1 as a manufacturing trainee.
Valencia received her B.S. degree in business management from the University of South Carolina this spring. Prior to college, she moved around quite a bit: early childhood in West Virginia, high school graduation in Millersburg, Ohio, then a four-year stint in the Army where she served as a clerk typist/personnel.
Her overseas duty was in Seoul, Korea. She had reached the rank of Sp4 at the time of her discharge.
Valencia likes reading, volleyball, hiking, and softball.
She is single and will be living in Raeford.
