Cataldo-Whiteis Couple Wed In Texas Ceremony

Wedding vows were exchanged by Shirley Rene Whiteis and Charles Christopher Cataldo, Saturday evening, May twenty second at 7:00 p.m. in The First Methodist Church, Bedford, Texas.

Officiating was Father Philip Johnson of Arlington, Texas.

The altar of the church was flanked by a pair of five branched candelabra trees centered by a fifteen branched candelabra, entwined with greenery, yellow roses, daisies and miniature carnations. Six Boston ferns completed the decor.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Denise French of Arlington.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Lester M. Whiteis of Hurst, Texas, and Mr. Charles C. Cataldo and the late Mrs. Cataldo of Andover, Massachusetts. The bride is the granddaughter of Oscar Scull of Raeford and the late Mrs. Scull.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white organdy with a bodice of brocaded mesh, seeded with baby pearls and iridescent sequins, forming a sweetheart off-the-shoulder neckline. Her floor-length veil and blushing veil of white organza net attached to a headband of brocaded net with matching baby pearls. She carried a bouquet of yellow rose buds, daisies, white miniature carnations and a Japette orchid which she lifted from her bouquet and wore on her honeymoon.

Arlene White of Fort Worth served her sister as matron of honor. She wore a gown of yellow organdy and carried a bouquet of yellow roses, daisies, and miniature carnations.

Bridesmaids were Michele Whiteis, sister-in-law of the bride, of Hurst, Mary Anne Pellegrino, cousin of the groom, of New York, Shirley Warford of Hurst, and Sheri Grant of Arlington, Texas. They were attired like the honor attendant and carried matching bouquets.

Mollie Jean Adams, cousin of the bride, served as flower girl. She was dressed entirely in white and carried a miniature lace basket of artificial yellow hearts with yellow ribbon streamers.

Jim Cataldo of Arlington served his brother as best man. Grooms-men were Vincent Pellegrino of New York, Gregory Whiteis of Idaho, Lester W. Whiteis of Hurst and Cliff Woods of Irving, Texas.

The mother of the bride was attired in a candlelight brocaded lace gown and wore an Japette orchid corsage.

The grandmother of the bride was dressed in an aqua formal gown and wore a corsage of yellow rose buds.

Following a honeymoon trip to the coast the couple will live in Arlington, Texas.

REHEARSAL DINNER

The groom's father hosted the rehearsal dinner on Friday at "The Cork and Cleaver Restaurant" in Arlington. Gifts were presented to the wedding party by the bride and groom.

RECEPTION

The bride's parents entertained with a Dinner Reception in the 2001 ballroom at the AMFAC Hotel following the wedding.

Miss Delaine Peckham, cousin of the bride, presided over the bride's book.

Out of state guests were Charles C. Cataldo of Andover, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Sam A. Pellegrino, Vincent and Mary Anne Pellegrino of East Northport, N.Y., Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Pellegrino, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Krusell, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Pizzano, Miss Patricia Pizzano, and Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Pizzano of Methuen, Mass., Mrs. Edna Geeslin of Long Beach, Ca., Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Whiteis of Mt. Home, Idaho, Josh Scull of Raeford, Miss Delaine Peckham of Chapel Hill and Mr. and Mrs. James Pizzano of Weymouth, Mass.

Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carr announce the birth of a daughter, Carol Jean on June 6, at Cape Fear Valley Hospital. Mrs. Carr is the former Peggy Wood.
