Davis - Edens Couple Wed At Center Grove Church

Wedding vows of Irene Edens and Ronald Davis were spoken on Sunday, June 13 at 3:00 p.m. at the Center Grove Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Edens of Shannon. She is a graduate of Hoke High School.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arron Douglas of Fayetteville and is a graduate of Seventy First High School and Fayetteville Technical Institute.

The Rev. T. McDonald officiated the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Alice Greene presented a program of organ music. Michael Ross, Cynthia Quick and Gary Love sang "Endless Love" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The church was decorated with two arrangements of white gladiolus and chrysanthemums in white and blue foliage baskets. Candelabra and the kneeling bench were used to adorn the front of the church.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a Queen-Anne neckline gown accented with chantilly lace, long chantilly lace bishop sleeves, and empire waist with full A-line skirt. Layers of chantilly lace was attached to a chapel length train. The bride chose a walking length veil with a rhinestone crown edged with seed pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet of mixed silk peonies and gypsophila with matching laced streamers.

Vermain Edens served as maid of honor. She was attired in a long floral gown of blue and white and carried blue and white flowers on a lace fan with streamers.

The bridesmaids were attired like the honor attendant and carried laced fans with silk pink and blue peonies over gypsophila with matching laced streamers and hair pieces. They were Sharon Edens, Vanessa Farmer, Evelyn Shaw, Val Davis and Nancy McPhaul.

Mr. Curtis Edens served as best man for the groom.

Ushers were Earl Gilchrist, Billy Peterkin, Clarence Edens, Jr., Jessie Edens and Vertis Thomas.

Children attendants in the wedding were Michelle Davis and Melinda Godwin, both serving as flower girls. They wore similar dresses as the bridesmaids.

Ringbearer was Darrell Greene. He carried a pillow with an arrangement of silk flowers that also carried out the color scheme of the wedding.

The mother of the bride was attired in a formal blue gown and wore a corsage of blue peonies.

The groom's mother wore a formal blue-green gown and also wore a matching corsage.

After a wedding trip to Atlanta, Georgia and Florida the couple will be at home in Fayetteville.

The bridal couple received flattery from their chosen pattern and a blender from the hostesses.

An after dinner social was enjoyed by everyone.

Terpsichorean Ball Invitations Out

James Bell Black III, President of the Terpsichorean Club of Raleigh, announced today that invitations have been issued to the Fifty-sixth Annual North Carolina Debutante Ball. The event will be held here on September 9th, 10th and 11th, 1982. The formal presentation to North Carolina Society of young ladies from across the state will highlight the weekend festivities.

The Terpsichorean Club, comprised of young gentlemen from the Raleigh area, was formed to sponsor an annual statewide Debutante Ball for the presentation of North Carolina's socially prominent young ladies and to honor the first families of the state. It has been given every year since 1923 with the exception of the World War II years.

The young ladies, who will be presented by their fathers, were selected by over 100 nominators located throughout the state. Final approval of the Debutantes is made by Terpsichorean Club members.

The young ladies are chosen based on the family's contribution to the community, their background, social prominence, and the girls' civic, scholastic, and social activities. The Leader of the Ball is chosen from Wake County's Debutantes, and fourteen girls from throughout the state are also honored by being named Assistant Leaders.

Officers of the Terpsichorean Club in addition to Mr. Black are: Randolph L. Worth, Vice President; Matt Nowell, Secretary; Treasurer; and Joseph Calhoun Moore III, Assistant Secretary - Treasurer.
