

Blazers Win 2, Lose 1

The baseball Blazers, Hoke's own semi-pro team, did itself proud again this past weekend, winning two games and losing a make-up. Playing St. Pauls here on Saturday, Jimmy Conoly's men got by the Hawks, 11 to 9. At Eureka Springs Sunday, the Blazers won one and lost one against the Orioles. It was 9-8 Orioles in the make-up game, and then a 13-6 Blazers victory in the finish.

Orlando Fairly pitched the Saturday game and held the Hawks down while his teammates got the runs to get ahead and stay there. Raschad Rahman led the Blazers' hitting attack with a homer and a double. Mike Nieves and Larry McDonald also had two hits apiece.

On Sunday the Blazers traveled to Eureka Springs. The afternoon began with the Orioles and our boys making up a game that had been played on May 30 and suspended after 9 innings tied at 8 to 8. The Blazers went scoreless in their half of the 10th, but the Orioles crossed the plate in the bottom of the inning to put this game away.

In the final game Sunday the Blazers got their bats talking again with 14 hits. Kenny Carpenter went 3 for 5 with a home run, and Larry McDonald contributed a triple. Mark Madden, Tim Clark, Stanley Cummings and Mike Nieves were good for the other big hits of the day. Carpenter, Clark and Madden were the RBI leaders.

Rahmaan got the win as pitcher, sprinkling 7 hits while his mates played errorless ball.

Look for the Blazers to play one of their few Sunday afternoon games at home this Sunday, June 27, at 3 at the Hoke High Field against Red Springs. Or, start getting ready for the Sunday, July 4, afternoon game here against Lumber Bridge - the only team to beat the Blazers twice this season.

Admission is $1.50 at the gate or $1 in advance.

Ask any player about tickets, or stop by radio station WSHB for advance sales.
