

Bowers-Faircloth Couple Wed In Outdoor Ceremony Sat.

Miss Emma Jane Faircloth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Faircloth, Sr. of Raeford, and Carl Scott Bowers, son of Mrs. Martha Nave of Raeford and Carl Bowers of Boerne, Texas, were married on Saturday, June 26 at 6:00 p.m. in an outdoor ceremony held at the bride's home. The Rev. Billy Beaver officiated for the double ring vows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of organza and Chantilly lace. The bodice featured an empire waistline adorned with a Chantilly lace band and scattered with seed pearls. The long organza sleeves with lace motifs ended at the wrist with a cuff of lace. Her A-lined organza skirt featured twin panels of Chantilly lace and extended into a chapel train bordered with Chantilly lace. She chose a chapel-length Chantilly mantilla for her headpiece and carried a colonial bouquet of silk daisies with babies' breath, rosebuds, and streamers made by her mother.

Daphne McBryde served as maid of honor. She wore a formal gown of baby blue with spaghetti straps and carried a single carnation.

Holly Scarboro was flower girl. Best man was Jim Bowers, of Southern Pines, uncle of the bridegroom.

Miss Kim Bounds assisted by playing The Wedding March which was pre-taped.

The mother of the bride chose a mint green dress with sheer overlay for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother wore a chiffon dress with floral print. They both wore a corsage of yellow, pink, and white daisies with babies' breath.

After a wedding trip to Boone, the couple will be at home in Southern Pines.

The bride is a 1982 graduate of Hoke High School. The bridegroom also attended Hoke High and is employed with Bowers Plumbing in Southern Pines.

Mrs. Carl Scott Bowers

RECEPTION

The parents of the bride entertained at a reception at their home immediately following the ceremony.

Pat Faircloth and Susie Morrison poured punch. Jenny Scarboro and Betsy Faircloth served the cake which was made by the bride's mother. Debbie Williams also assisted in serving.

Warren-Hottel Marriage Vows Exchanged In Baptist Church

The wedding vows of Joy Louise Hottel and Samuel Garfield Warren were exchanged on Saturday, June 26, at 3:00 p.m. in the First Baptist Church of Raeford. The Rev. Billy Beaver officiated for the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas Hottel of Raeford. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Garfield Warren of Chocowinity.

Nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Lynne Maxwell, organist; Charles Hottel, father of the bride, sang "The Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer". The bridal couple sang "Walk Hand In Hand".

The church was decorated with matching elegant palms which were surrounded by several ruffled ferns. An arrangement of yellow and white carnations and daisy with peruvian lilies and ming fern adorned the baptistry. The trinity and kneeling bench were used to complete the wedding theme.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white formal gown of Qiana fashioned with a blouson bodice, Queen Anne neckline, and cap sleeves trimmed in silk Venice lace and pearls. She wore a picture hat with silk Venice lace and pearls with a chapel-length illusion and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow silk rosebuds, daisies, and gypsophila with variegated greenery.

Mrs. Kim Wood of Elon served as matron of honor. Misses Sally Maxwell and Gay Ivey of Raeford were bridesmaids. They wore gowns of yellow lustrous polyester knit featuring double spaghetti straps, shirred bodice, empire waistline, and pleated skirt, and accented with a caplet of polyester chiffon.

The matron of honor carried a natural straw basket of silk rosebuds and daisies with gypsophila and streamers to coordinate with her costume. The bridesmaids carried matching baskets of silk yellow and white daisies and gypsophila with matching streamers.

Mr. Warren served as his son's best man. Ushers were Jimmy Maxwell, Ricky McInnis, and Neil McKenzie all of Raeford.

The mother of the bride wore a corsage of white silk royal bouquet orchids, and the bridegroom's mother's corsage was of silk mauve cymbidium orchids and gypsophila. The mother's pews were marked by candles and greenery.

The grandmother's corsage was a silk pastel pink parrot tulip with candle flowers.

For traveling, the bride wore a peach and white sundress with matching jacket. After a wedding trip to the beach, the couple will reside at Route 2, Raeford.

The bride is a senior at Pembroke State University majoring in Social Work and is employed by C.P. Kinlaw, Jewelers of Raeford.

The bridegroom is a graduate of N.C. State University and is employed as the District Soil Conservationist in Hoke County.

RECEPTION

The bride's parents hosted a reception in the Church Fellowship Hall immediately following the ceremony.

Miss Delissa Lunsford poured punch. Cake was served by Miss Hope Williams and Mrs. Barbara Rozier. The bride's book was kept by Mrs. Eula Lunsford. Tea girls were Misses Kim and Carol Colston and Misses Karen and Kristin Langdon.

The reception table was decorated with an arrangement of yellow carnations, white daisies, peruvian lilies, tree fern and centered with a hurricane globe with matching yellow taper.

REHEARSAL DINNER
The parents of the bridegroom

Mrs. Samuel Garfield Warren

entertained at a rehearsal dinner on Friday evening at Chason's Barbeque in Lumber Bridge.

BRIDESMAIDS' LUNCHEON

A bridesmaids luncheon was held at the home of Mrs. David Upchurch of Lumberton. Hostesses for the occasion were Miss Gay Ivey and Mrs. Sally Maxwell of Raeford and Mrs. Mark Wood of Burlington.

Tables were set for twelve in the dining and living rooms. The dining table was covered with an embroidered linen cloth with an arrangement of miniature carnations, roses, alstroemeria lilies, glads and statice. Small baskets of miniature carnations and babies' breath were placed on the individual tables.

The bride was presented with an appliance for her new home. Gifts were presented to the bridesmaids at this time.

COOKOUT

On Friday, June 18, the Adult Choir of the First Baptist Church,

Raeford honored their fellow choir members, Joy Hottel and Sam Warren, with a cook-out at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Williams. Hostesses for the cook-out were Sheila Black, DeLissa Lunsford, Khrystal Lunsford, and Hope Williams.

After the blessing was given by Charles Hottel, hamburgers, hot dogs, and a selection of good food provided by Choir Members was enjoyed by all who attended. A hanging basket was presented to the honored couple from the choir. Approximately 35 friends attended for food, fellowship, and fun!
