Larimore-Whetstone Wedding Vows Pledged In Greensboro

Mr. and Mrs. William Peter Larimore are on a cruise to the Bahamas following their June 12 wedding in Starmount Presbyterian Church at Greensboro. Upon returning they will make their home in Greensboro.

The bride is the former Susan Elmira Whetstone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Whetstone of Shelby. The bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Larimore of Peoria, Illinois.

Dr. George Carpenter heard the couple speak their double ring vows in the chapel decorated with arched candelabra holding lighted tapers. A pair of fluted white columns held urns filled with white gladioli, mums, and greenery. Completing the setting were palms and a central arched candelabrum entwined with ivy and holding lighted tapers.

Mrs. Nancy Fogerty was organist for a program of nuptial music and vocal selections were by Jim Bodkin.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal gown of white organza designed with a Queen Anne neckline edged with imported silk Venice lace and seed pearls, long Juliet sleeves and an empire waistline. The bodice was appliqued with Venice lace motifs. The full skirt was encircled with a flounce which formed a cathedral train also trimmed with the same lace. Her fingertip illusion veil was enhanced with matching Venice lace and was attached to a bandeau of lace and pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Mrs. William Peter Larimore

Miss Ruth Whetstone of Shelby, attended her sister as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Eileen Carter of Asheville; Miss Julia Dixon of Wilmington; Mrs. Sharon Elam of Charlotte; and Miss Ellen Kunkel, Greensboro. Attendants were identically gowned in floor length dresses of lavender with chiffon overlay. They carried white straw baskets of mixed spring flowers. In their hair they wore miniature flowers with satin streamers.

Mr. Phillip T. Whittington of Wilmington, served the groom as best man. Groomsmen were the bride's brother, Paul A. Whetstone, III of Chapel Hill; the groom's uncle, J. Anthony Houser of Raleigh; Bill Guill and Jeff Stennert of Greensboro.

The bride is a graduate of Shelby Senior High School. She holds the Associate of Arts degree from Peace College and B.A. degree in Psychology from High Point College where she was a member of Zeta Tau Alpha Fraternity. She is employed by Wang Laboratories in Greensboro as administrative assistant.

The bridegroom attended Illinois State University and served in the United States Navy. He is employed as regional representative for Follett College Book Corp., Chicago, Ill.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents hosted a reception at Hidden Lakes Club House in Greensboro.

Assisting with the reception were Miss Mary Whitley of Raeford, aunt of the bride; and Miss Louisa Kersh of Chapel Hill. Miss Michelle Townsend of Greensboro, presided at the guest register.

Miss Laviner Becomes Bride Of David Currie Sunday

Miss Barbara Marie Laviner became the bride of David Gene Currie on Sunday, June 27, at 3:00 p.m. in the Montpelier Presbyterian Church in Wagram. The Rev. Mark Scott officiated for the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Benford Laviner of Wagram. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Frances Currie of Raeford and the late Hugh Ellis Currie.

The church was decorated with an arrangement of mixed white flowers and candles, flanked by spiral candelabra and baskets of ferns.

Wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Frances Cooley, organist, and Mrs. Wanda Nobles, soloist, who sang "One Hand, One Heart" and "The Wedding Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of polychiffon trimmed with Alencon lace and pearls featuring fitted lace sleeves covered with split over-sleeves of chiffon with lace cuffs and fitted bodice with split neck and poplum of Alencon lace. Her A-lined skirt extended into a chapel train. She wore a three-tiered veil with lace trim attached to a lace headpiece enhanced by pearls and carried a nosegay of silk roses surrounding a white orchid.

Mrs. Lori Smith served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Harriet Currie, niece of the bridegroom, of Raeford, and Misses Becky and Rachel Ace, cousins of the bride, of Durham. They all wore peasant-style gowns with full sleeves and gathered skirts of light blue with a border print

Mrs. Davis Honored At Parties

Mrs. Jeff Davis who left Monday to join Mr. Davis in Charlotte, was entertained at several parties recently.

Mrs. Crawford Thomas, Sr. entertained with a dinner party. Guests were invited into the dining room for juices and appetizers. Dinner was served in the dining room. Arrangements of roses and daisies were used throughout the home as decorations.

Mrs. Thomas presented the couple with a shaving glass that had been used by Mr. Davis' great grandfather, Mr. Jim Thomas.

Mrs. R.L. Gibson entertained for Mrs. Davis at her country home in Antioch with a dessert bridge.

Places were set for twelve. Blue homespun clothes covered the tables centered with bouquets of tobacco blooms. A delicious daiquiri cheese cake and coffee were served during the game.

Mrs. Davis was remembered with a silk card box from the hostess.

Mrs. Ches Hayes and Mrs. W.K. Morgan invited twelve of Mrs. Davis' friends for tennis and lunch at the Hayes home. A morning of tennis was enjoyed and a lovely luncheon was served in the dining room.

Mrs. Davis was given a wooden tennis and ball rack by her hostesses.

Mrs. Alfred Leach and Mrs. Neill McFadyen, Jr. entertained for Mrs. Davis at the McFadyen home on North Main Street with a bridge brunch.

Sixteen guests were seated at card tables upon arrival and served homemade wine. A buffet was served in the dining room.

Arrangements of shasta daisies and colorful summer flowers were used throughout the home.

Mrs. Davis was given a hand woven and hand dyed gizzard basket made for her by the hostesses. The basket was filled with an arrangement of summer flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis will make their new home in Charlotte where Mr. Davis will be Marketing Director for Computat, a Systems House owned by Vanderbilt Shirt Company. Mrs. Davis will be teaching music.

Mrs. David Gene Currie

design of multi-colored flowers. They carried bouquets of three long-stemmed yellow silk roses.

Eddie Currie of Raeford served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Tommy Currie, brother of the bridegroom, Curtis Barnett of Greenville, S.C., and Benny and Andy Laviner, brothers of the bride, of Wagram.

The mother of the bride was attired in a yellow shirtwaist dress of sheer polyester, and the bridegroom's mother, in an aqua shirtwaist-styled dress of sheer polyester.

For traveling the bride chose a printed sundress.

The couple will reside in the West Hoke community.

The bride is a 1982 graduate of Scotland High School and is employed at United Carolina Bank and Wagram Paper Stock Co.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Hoke High School and is self-employed as a farmer in Hoke and Scotland Counties.

RECEPTION

The bride's parents entertained at a reception in the Church Fellowship Hall. The bridal couple and their parents greeted guests.

Mrs. Lynn Shaw and Mrs. Margaret Baxley poured punch. Cake was served by Mrs. Frances Hawkins and Mrs. Myrtle Currie. The bride's book was kept by Miss Lyle Shaw. Others assisting were Miss Mary Peden, and Misses Catherine and Lucy Smith.

In Charge Of Hoke 4-H

Alice Lancaster Promoted To Agent

Willie Featherstone, Hoke County Extension chairman, announces the promotion of Alice Lancaster from associate Extension agent, 4-H, to Extension agent, 4-H, effective July 1.

Featherstone said, in making the announcement that, "Miss Lancaster has exerted excellent leadership in developing a good 4-H program which aids in the growth and development of Hoke County youth. Her experience spans seven years, of which six years were spent working with the youth in Wayne County and she has been with Hoke County Agricultural Extension Service since May 16, 1981.

"During the previous 13 1/2 months we have experienced some tremendous successes in the 4-H program. Most recently 21 youth and three adults participated in District Activity Day in Goldsboro, and a pigeon club, horse club, and two new community 4-H clubs have been organized. The entire staff is excited about the 51 young people and 5 adult leaders that have signed up for 4-H Camp, which will take place in early August.

"Alice Lancaster is a true professional in every sense of the word, and we are fortunate to have her as a member of the Hoke County Extension staff."
