Courtesies Shown Miss Bounds, Mr. Gentry

Miss Susan Bounds was honored on June 19 with a floating linen shower. Mrs. Charles Lewis and Mrs. Rufus Odom were co-hostesses at the Odom home in Red Springs. Guests called between the hours of 3 and 4:30.

Miss Bounds; her mother, Mrs. Laurence Bounds; her grandmother, Mrs. Paul Owens of Burlington and Mrs. Bob Gentry, mother of the prospective groom, received in the foyer. Guests were invited to the dining room table for refreshments of coffee punch, ham pin wheels, cheese biscuits, spiced nuts, open-faced sandwiches, cherry finger tarts, watermelon rind pickles and date balls.

The dining room table was covered with a rose cloth overlaid with a Quaker-lace cloth. A mass arrangement of red antherium, American Beauty roses, matching Queen Ann's Lace and Gypsophila decorated the table.

Gifts were beautifully displayed in the family room. Assisting with serving were Mrs. Carl Bounds, cousin of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Mark Dunn of Garner. Good-byes were said to Mrs. Eloise Jenkins. The hostesses presented the honoree with a lovely original Chinese fruit bowl.

On Sunday evening, July 4, Miss Susan Bounds and Gary Gentry were honored with an ice-cream supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Currie of Red Springs. Also hosting the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ammons.

Upon arrival Miss Bounds was presented a corsage of white mini-mums. A red, white and blue color scheme was used in decorating the patio. The refreshment table was covered with a red tablecloth and centered with Ben Franklin and Betsy Ross dolls.

Guests enjoyed a variety of homemade ice creams and toppings. Also served were a variety of homemade cookies.

After Miss Bounds and Mr. Gentry enjoyed opening gag gifts and read descriptive poems about the use of the gifts during their married life, the hostesses presented the couple with a toaster-oven and corning ware. A very special gift was a booklet containing pictures of Mr. Gentry and Miss Bounds from birth to adulthood printed by Mr. Wilson.

Mrs. Bill Moses and Mrs. Mike Wood entertained at an ice cream party at the Moses' home on Sunday afternoon, July 11, honoring Miss Bounds.

The living room and foyer were decorated with shasta daisies and roses, and day lilies were used in the den.

Refreshments were served from the dining room table which was covered with a gold cutwork linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of red silk poppies and blue silk bachelor buttons in a natural wicker basket. Homemade ice cream, a variety of toppings, homemade cookies, and nuts were enjoyed by the guests.

The hostesses presented the honoree with a yellow silk daisy corsage and a gift of stainless steel steak knives.

Out of town guests were Miss Patty Owens of Graham and Mrs. Lawrence Willis of Cheraw, S.C.

Several of the bride-elect's friends shared their wedding pictures on this occasion.
