

Stolen Property, Drug, Traffic Defendants Sentenced

The following judgments were issued last week in Hoke County Superior Court by Judge D.M. McLelland.

John J. Kokoruda, Rt. 1, Lumber Bridge, possession of a counterfeit controlled substance with intent to sell and deliver, and with sale and delivery, two years, work release recommended, with credit given for two days spent in jail prior to the date of judgment; two-year suspended sentence activated, to run concurrent with the new sentence, and probation revoked. The defendant was on probation for conspiracy to felony breaking and entering in Johnston County, and sentenced in Lee County Superior Court as a committed youthful offender June 14, 1979, the sentence suspended and the defendant placed on probation for five years.

Charles Wesley Bullard, Rt. 1, Box 85-A, Red Springs, driving under the influence, possession of a firearm by a felon, and possession of a controlled substance, appealed from District Court, two years suspended for five years, probation for five years, $300 and costs, limited-driving privilege granted, and the defendant to cooperate in a program on drug and alcohol abuse. The driver's license was suspended for 12 months in the District Court judgment.

Ernest White, Rt. 2, Box 496, Raeford, driving under the influence, and driving while license permanently revoked, 18 months, work release recommended, and the defendant recommended for treatment as necessary for alcoholism, credit to be given for five days spent in jail prior to the judgment.

Anson Avery Maynard, 38, Rt. 2, Raeford, felonious possession of stolen property, eight years. The defendant has appealed to the State Supreme Court from a death sentence imposed in Cumberland County Superior Court in 1981, for first-degree murder in the shooting of Stephen G. Henry, 20, Fayetteville, a state witness against Maynard in other larceny cases. Last week's sentence was for possession of tools valued at $4,434 owned by John L. Owens of Hoke County.

Leonard Harris, Rt. 4, Box 9, Raeford, driving under the influence, and driving while license permanently revoked, six to 12 months, with 20 days credited for time spent in jail awaiting judgment. The cases were heard on appeal from a District Court judgement.

Elizabeth C. Willis, Rt. 2, Box 143-C, Raeford, communicating threats, driving under the influence, driving while license revoked, careless and reckless driving, and speeding 70 in a 35 zone, 181 days. The cases were heard on appeal from a District Court judgment. Earl Graham, Rt. 1 Lumber Bridge, breaking or entering, and larceny, three years suspended for three years, probation for three years, $200 and costs.

Ernestine Watkins, 1138 Iris St., Raeford, fraudulent misrepresentation to obtain food stamps and aid to families with dependent children, five years suspended for three years, probation for three years, costs and $1,362 restitution to the Hoke County Department of Social Services.

Library News

"JOAB", the summer reading program is doing real well. There are 107 young folks registered; of these 58 are reading, 15 have completed reading their 10 books, and 34 have registered but haven't registered any books yet.

For the K-3 reading club who meet on Wednesday mornings there are nine youngsters enjoying stories, films, and crafts. There is room for a few more if your child wants to join.

In the reading group for grades 4-6 that meet on Fridays there are only eight folks registered. This group is having lots of fun and if you want to come and make up the 20 spaces we had for you, come along.

Remember the time for K-3 grades is 10 a.m. on Wednesdays, and the time for the 4-6 group is on Fridays at 10 a.m.

Films and film strips are shown, stories read, and puzzles were done. Beginning this week we will begin making our frog "JOAB." The 4-6 group will begin making frog puppets.
