

Pennell-Perry Couple Married In Louisburg Aug. 7

Miss Charlotte Millette Perry and Eddie Lee Pennell were united in matrimony on Sunday, August 7, 1982 at three o'clock in the Flat Rock Baptist Church in Louisburg. Dr. W. Gattis Perry, uncle of the bride, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millard S. Perry, Jr. of Louisburg. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Shuford L. Pennell of Raeford.

Mrs. DeLaine Loftis, organist, presented a program of nuptial music. Miss Linda Gould, friend of the bride, sang "One Hand, One Heart" by Bernstein, "Two Candles" by Salisbury, and "The Wedding Prayer" by Dunlap. The "Bridal Chorus" by Wagner was played for the processional, and "The Wedding March" from "A Midsummer Nights Dream" by Mendelssohn was selected for the recessional.

The marriage vows were spoken before a setting of many mixtures of various greenery intersperse throughout the church and accented by brass candelabras of many types. The couple signified their union by lighting the trinity candelabra tied with a white satin bow intertwine with coffee greens and knelt before the traditional prie-dieu also accented with matching bow and greenery. Reserved pews for honored guest were marked with hurricane globes and white satin bows with variegated philo-plant. The wedding decor was designed by Franklinton Florist.

The bride wore a formal gown of white chiffon trimmed in Silk Venise and Chantilly lace. The fitted bodice featured a high neckline with stand up collar and natural waistline. Silk Venise lace, seed pearls, and sequins trimmed the bodice. The Bishop sleeves had appliques of Chantilly lace with sequins and seed pearls. The full skirt was enhanced by a wide lace trim and appliques of lace, sequins, and pearls on the flounce and the chapel train. The matching Victorian hat was trimmed in Silk Venise lace, sequins, and pearls with illusion streamers.

The bride carried a fan belonging to her paternal grandmother, the late Mrs. Neta L. Perry. This was centered behind a white lace fan decorated with white silk gardenias, stephanotis, rose lily-of-the-valley, variegated philo-plant, and trimmed with white bridal lace and satin streamers.

Miss Lisa Perry was her sister's maid of honor. Mrs. Cynthia Heuts, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. They wore floor length skirts of rose taffeta with white crepe blouses. The full A-line skirt features a wide cummerbund. The blouse featured elbow-length sleeves, a button-down front, and a high neckline. The bib front and neckline of the blouse were of Schiffli lace.

The attendants carried white lace fans decorated with co-ordinate silk flowers and accented with white ribbon streamers. They wore combs of matching silk flowers in their hair.

Bridesmaids were Miss Juanita Bennett of Rich Square, Miss Phama Mullen of Louisburg, Miss Jan Roberts of Chapel Hill, and Miss Wanda Walters of Blacksburg, Virginia. Their gowns, bouquets, and combs were identical to those of the honor attendants.

Little Miss Aaron Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie L. Johnson of Louisburg and little Miss Jennifer Lloyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Lloyd of Louisburg, served as flower girls. They are both cousins of the bride. They wore skirts and blouses identical to the attendants and carried white baskets of silk flowers chosen to match the honor attendants and tied with white satin ribbon.

The groom wore a white tuxedo with a boutonniere of white stephanotis with fresh greenery and baby's breath. Shuford L. Pennell served as his son's best man. The groomsmen wore gray tuxedos with white winged-tipped collars and gray-striped ascots. They wore boutonniere identical to that of the groom. Groomsmen were Vann Pennell of Williamston, David Caudill of Midland, Texas, Steve Connell, Steve Morgan, and Eddie Ramsey, all of Raeford.

The bride's mother and the groom's mother wore mauve taffeta skirts and ivory crepe blouses styled identical to that of the attendants. They wore corsages of silk orchids with white lace collars and ribbon.

Mrs. Lola C. Joyner of Louisburg, maternal grandmother of the bride and Mrs. Omie Pennell of Mooresville, paternal grandmother of the groom were honored guests. They wore corsages of white silk orchids.

Miss Linda Shillinglaw of Louisburg, directed the wedding and Miss Diane Traylor of Wilmington presided at the guest register. Both are friends of the bride.

The bride is a 1978 graduate of Louisburg College and a 1980 graduate of East Carolina University. Prior to her marriage, the bride taught fifth grade at Louisburg Elementary School. She is presently employed by Berkeley County Schools in South Carolina.

The groom is a 1978 graduate of Louisburg College and a 1981 graduate of East Carolina University. He is presently employed as a Production Control-Materials Planner at Reliable Electric Company in St. Steven, South Carolina.

Following their wedding trip to Kiawah Island, S.C., the couple will reside in Summerville, S.C.

RECEPTION

Immediately following the wedding ceremony, the bride's family entertained at a reception in the church fellowship hall. The hall was decorated with ferns and other greenery accented with pink candles and ribbon. The bride's portrait was displayed on a standing easel near the register.

The refreshment table was covered with a rose cloth overlaid with white lace tablecloth in keeping with the bride's color scheme. The table was centered with an arrangement of matching flowers. At one end of the table a crystal punch bowl contained the bridal punch, and silver trays of wedding mints, ham and biscuits, toasted pecans, chicken salad tart shells, angel puffs, open faced sandwiches, peanut butter sticks, and cheese wafers completed the table.

A round table covered in a lace trimmed tablecloth held the three-tiered wedding cake which was predominately white with cascades of pink rosebuds. It was topped by matching silk flowers. The cake was designed by Mrs. Stella Wiggins and Mrs. Jenny W. Lloyd.

Mrs. Alice Roberts and Mrs. Carl Joy Perry served the wedding cake. Mrs. Eva Wheeler and Mrs. Christine Perry poured punch for the guests. Friends and relatives assisted with the reception. Good-byes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Willie H. Cooke.

BRIDESMAID'S LUNCHEON

Miss Millette Perry and her bridesmaids were entertained by Mrs. Frances Cooke, Cynthia Heuts, and Lisa Perry in the Bickett Room at The Murphy House restaurant on July 31 at 12:30 p.m. Upon arrival, Miss Perry was pinned with a rose corsage.

The menu featured ham, chicken, string beans, potatoes, congealed salad, bread, drinks, and pie.

Honored guests were Mrs. Fannie Pennell, Mrs. Cathy Pennell, and Mrs. Carolyn Perry.

FLOATING MISCELLANEOUS SHOWERS

On July 11, Sunday afternoon, Miss Perry was honored with a floating miscellaneous shower in the home of Mrs. Jenny Lloyd. The shower was given by the paternal aunts of the bride.

On July 15, Miss Perry was honored with a floating miscellaneous shower in Raeford, given by friends of the groom's parents.

REHEARSAL DINNER

Following the rehearsal on Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Shuford Pennell, parents of the groom, hosted a dinner party at the Plantation Inn in Raleigh for the wedding party and out of town guests.

Upon their arrival, the bride was presented a yellow lily corsage and the groom a yellow lily boutonniere. The guests were invited into the dining room where punch was served by Mrs. R.E. Roberts, aunt of the groom.

The U-shaped dining tables were covered with white linen clothes and napkins centered with Burgandy ribbon, pink and white carnations and pink candles in silver candle holders. The head table had an arrangement of mixed roses and white carnations featuring three-tiered candles.

A buffet of prime rib of beef, chicken, stuffed fish, beef tips on rice, assorted vegetables, salad and dessert were served to the bridal couple and guests.

Best wishes and jovial comments were offered by Steve Connell, Davie Caudill, John Adams, and Vann Pennell, brother of the groom.

Favors of miniature potpourri wrapped in off white net tied with Burgandy and pink ribbon was presented to each lady. After dinner, the bridal couple presented their gifts to the groomsmen, bridesmaids and flower girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Pennell presented the bridal couple with a very special surprise gift at the close of the dinner party, which was a framed photograph of the couple individually when they were one-year old.

Couple Shown Recent Courtesies

A luncheon honoring Miss Mary Willcox, bride-elect of September 11, was given by Mrs. Dave Barrington and Mrs. Carson Davis, Jr. at The Greenhouse in Pinehurst on August 7.

Upon arrival the guests were invited into the glass-enclosed dining room where they were seated at a table for ten. The honoree's place was marked with a chrysanthemum corsage.

A salad plate was served followed by an iced strawberry dessert served in miniature flower pots.

The hostesses remembered Miss Willcox with gifts of china and wood.

On Saturday evening, Miss Willcox and Mr. Betts were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gatlin at their country cabin.

Hors d'oeuvres were enjoyed on the patio and pier overlooking the pond after which a delicious buffet supper, ending with churns of home-made ice cream, was served.

Guests included parents and relatives of the bride and groom-elect and friends from Chapel Hill and Raeford.

A Sheffield server was given to the honored couple.
