Miss Gillis Becomes Bride Of Mr. Willis At Galatia Church

Miss Beth Gillis and David Willis exchanged wedding vows on Sunday morning at the Galatia Presbyterian Church during the morning worship service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Gillis of the Galatia community of Fayetteville.

The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Willis of Raeford.

The bride and bridegroom chose to sit with their respective families and participate in the morning worship service which preceded their wedding.

During the worship service the Chancel Choir, directed by Pattie Hasty and accompanied by Nancy Brady, organist, presented as the choral introtit "Morning Has Broken", a traditional Gaelic melody by Eleanor Fargeon. They sang "The Gift of Love" by Hal Hopson based on 1 Corinthians 13 as the offertory anthem. Mrs. Brady played "A Trumpet Chorale" by J.S. Bach for the processional. The choir sang the closing portion of "O Perfect Love" by Dorothy Gurney as the benedictory response. The "Prince of Denmark's March" by Jeremiah Clarke was used for the recessional.

Two large arrangements of mixed summer flowers flanked by tall colonial-style brass candlesticks holding single ivory candles were used on the altar shelf. An arrangement of mixed roses grown by the bride's cousin, William J. Gillis and arranged by Wade McDougald were placed on a table in the narthex.

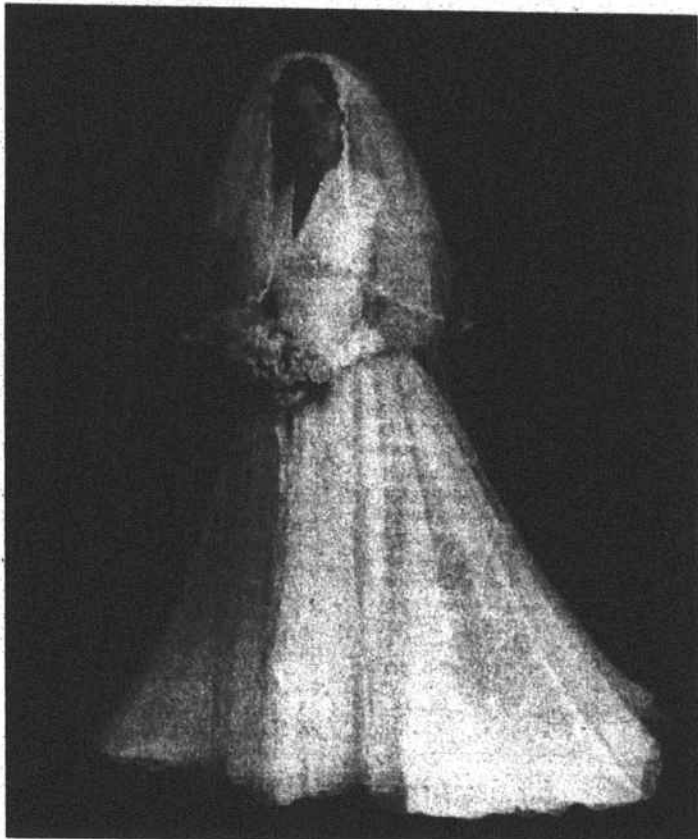

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white sheer organza with Venise and Chantilly lace and appliqued with seed pearls. The gown was designed with slashed neckline, near-natural waist, camelot sleeves and full circular skirt which extended into a chapel train. Her silk illusion two-tiered fingertip veil with re-embroidered lace appliques was worn with a flowered cap. She carried a colonial-style bouquet of mixed summer flowers.

Kathryn Ann Gillis, of Raleigh, was her sister's honorary attendant. She wore a floral floor-length dress in shades of white, navy, green and yellow accented with a long navy ribbon at the waist.

Mr. Willis served as best man for his son.

The mother of the bride wore a street length dress of teal blue silk. The bridegroom's mother chose a street-length dress of powder blue linen.

After a wedding trip to the islands of Oahu and Kauai,

Mrs. David Willis

Hawaii, the bridal couple will reside in Hoke County. For traveling, the bride wore a red linen suit.

The bride is a graduate of Robeson Country Day School (now Flora Macdonald Academy) in Red Springs. She is employed as a secretary-bookkeeper. The bridegroom is a graduate of Hoke High School and Sandhill Community College. He is self employed.
